Re: Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-18979

Dear Ms. Peterson:

We are counsel to the National Securities Clearing Corporation (“NSCC”). I write in response to your letter of February 1, 2019, to counsel for Alpine Securities Corporation (“Alpine”), which we received a copy of on February 4, 2019.

The letter refers to NSCC filing a “certified copy of the record in [the] proceeding.” NSCC, however, respectfully advises the Commission that there was no underlying “proceeding” and no resulting “record” to be certified in this matter. As set forth in detail in NSCC’s Opposition to Alpine’s Motion for an Interim Stay pending the determination of its Application for Review (filed January 23, 2019), Alpine’s Application for Review is a challenge to certain daily margin requirements applicable to NSCC members, including Alpine, under NSCC’s rules approved by the Commission in accordance with Section 19(b)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). To date, Alpine is not in violation of any of those margin rules.

NSCC has not instituted any proceeding to impose disciplinary sanctions or to deny or limit access to services as contemplated by Section 19(d)(1) of the Exchange Act. Accordingly, no “notice” thereof has been filed with the Commission, and the record certification process is not applicable.

For additional details regarding the factual and legal circumstances surrounding Alpine’s Application for Review, NSCC respectfully refers the Commission to the parties’ papers filed in connection with Alpine’s Motion for an Interim Stay, which was fully briefed as of February 4, 2019.
