File No. 3-19456

September 26, 2019

In the Matter of Solar Wind Energy Tower, Inc., Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-19456, the Company admits to the allegations in Section II that it is delinquent in its periodic filings.

Whether the Securities and Exchange Commission determines to protect the investors by suspending trading/registration for a period not to exceed 12 months or revoke registration is solely in the hands of the Commission. The Company offers the following information for consideration:

1. The Company has no disputes with its auditors. The reason for the delinquency relates to the $100,000 of capital necessary to pay the accountants and auditors to prepare the filings.
2. The Company is current with all of its various state registrations and service representatives, inclusive of its subsidiaries.

3. The Company believes it has developed significant intellectual property supporting a contribution to restraining climate change. The Company has continued during its delinquent filing status period to file additional patents.
4. The Company has negotiated payoff agreements with its creditors and is working with several potential investors for an investment of sufficient capital to retire 100% of the existing debt of the Company, pay the fees necessary to have all filings current and provide additional working capital to pursue its first project in the Southwest United States.
5. The Company has no guarantee that it will be successful raising the described capital, however, should it be successful, the Company believes it would be in the best interest of the shareholders to be able to trade their positions.
6. The Company has reason to believe that the continued suspension of trading or revocation may impact its ability to successfully obtain the investment it is seeking.

Thank you for your consideration,
