ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-19503

In the Matter of

Nexus Resources Corporation, et al.

Respondents.

DIVISION OF ENFORCEMENT'S MOTION FOR DEFAULT AND BRIEF IN SUPPORT

The Division of Enforcement ("Division"), by counsel, pursuant to Commission Rules of Practice Rules 154(a) and 155(a)(2) respectfully moves the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") for an order entering a default against Nexus Resources Corporation (CIK No. 1586509) ("Nexus Resources") and Private Access, Inc. (CIK No. 1101912) ("Private Access") (collectively "Respondents") in this proceeding and ordering the revocation of the registration of each class of Respondents' securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act").

Argument

On September 24, 2019, the Commission issued an Order Instituting Proceedings ("OIP") against Respondents which have securities registered with the Commission under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act. The OIP alleges the Respondents are delinquent in filing their mandated periodic reports. Because each of the Respondents failed to answer or otherwise respond to the OIP, the Division now seeks entry of an order finding respondents Nexus Resources and Private Access to be in default in this proceeding.

Commission Rule of Practice 220(b) states that where an answer is required to be filed by rule or order, the respondent “shall do so within 20 days after service upon the respondent of the order instituting proceedings” unless a different period is provided by rule or order. Here, the OIP requires “an Answer [to be filed] to the allegations contained in this Order within ten (10) days after service of this Order.” OIP at IV. Commission Rule of Practice 160(a) provides that Saturdays, Sundays and Federal legal holidays are to be counted as part of the 10 day period, and Commission Rule of Practice 160(b) extends that time by three days if service is made by mail.

The Declaration of Gina Joyce to Assist Secretary with Record of Service (attached hereto as Exhibit A) (“Joyce Declaration”) establishes that on September 30, 2019, service upon Nexus Resources of the OIP, along with a letter from the Commission’s Secretary, and a letter from the Division offering discovery pursuant to Rule of Practice 230 (collectively the “Service Documents”), was attempted by Express Mail delivery at the address provided in its last EDGAR filing with the Commission, in accordance with Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii). Nexus Resources’ answer to the OIP was due by Tuesday, October 15, 2019. However, Nexus Resources has neither filed an answer nor made any other response to the OIP in this proceeding.

The Joyce Declaration also establishes that on September 30, 2019, service upon Private Access of the Service Documents was attempted by Express Mail delivery at the address provided in its last EDGAR filing with the Commission, in accordance with Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii). Private Access’ answer to the OIP was due by Tuesday, October 15, 2019. However, Private Access has neither filed an answer nor made any other response to the OIP in this proceeding.

The Respondents at issue are delinquent in their filings with the Commission and have been delinquent for over two years. In addition, the Respondents' failure to answer supports revocation of the registration of each class of the Respondents' securities. Accordingly, the Division moves for an order, pursuant to Rule 155(a)(2), finding these Respondents to be in default in this proceeding and ordering that the registration of each class of their securities registered pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 be revoked.

Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Division respectfully requests that the Commission: 1) grant the Division's Motion; 2) enter an order of default against Nexus Resources Corporation and Private Access, Inc.; and 3) revoke the registration of each class of their securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act.

DECLARATION OF GINA JOYCE TO ASSIST SECRETARY WITH RECORD OF SERVICE

GINA JOYCE, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, declares:

1. I am a Senior Counsel with the Division of Enforcement (“Division”) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and co-counsel for the Division in the captioned administrative proceeding. I am submitting this Declaration to assist the Secretary in maintaining a record of service on the respondents in the captioned proceedings pursuant to Rule 141(a)(3).

2. Among other means, Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii) permits service on a corporation or entity by delivering a copy of an Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings (“OIP”) to an agent authorized by appointment or law to receive such service or, in the case of an issuer with a class of securities registered with the Commission, by sending the OIP via U.S. Postal Service certified, registered, or Express Mail and obtaining a confirmation of attempted delivery on the most recent address shown on the entity’s most recent filing with the Commission.

Further, the OIP in this matter authorizes service of the OIP “by any means permitted by the Commission’s Rules of Practice.” Therefore, the Division asked the Commission’s Secretary to first attempt service on the Respondents via U.S. Priority Mail Express.

3. The Office of the Secretary provided me with the U.S. Priority Mail Express tracking numbers for the copies of the Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”)¹ that were mailed by the Secretary to the respondents in these proceedings. I input each of the tracking numbers into the U.S. Postal Service’s (“USPS’s”) package tracking system on its Internet website located at www.usps.com, and printed out the tracking confirmations in order to obtain confirmation of the delivery or attempted delivery of the OIP on each respondent. A true copy of the tracking confirmations for all of the respondents for whom express mail service was attempted is attached as Exhibit 1, hereto.

4. The Secretary mailed the OIP to respondent Nexus Resources Corporation, CIK 1586509 (“Nexus Resources”), via Priority Mail Express, Tracking No. EJ 140718279 US, to the address shown on its most recent EDGAR filing at 11555 Heron Bay Boulevard, Suite 200, Coral Springs, FL 33076. This address is taken from Nexus Resources’s last filing with the Commission, which was a Form 12b-25 filed with the Commission on March 31, 2014. The USPS tracking system confirms that delivery was attempted on September 30, 2019. The addressee was unknown. The package was returned to the SEC. See Exhibit 1 at pp. 1 - 2.

5. The Secretary mailed the OIP to respondent Private Access, Inc., CIK 1101912 (“Private Access”), via Priority Mail Express, Tracking No. EJ 140718282 US, to the address shown on its most recent EDGAR filing at 2920 N. Swan Road, Suite 206, ¹Each service package included the OIP, a letter from the Commission’s Secretary, and a letter from the Division offering discovery pursuant to Rule of Practice 230.

Tucson, AZ 85712. This address is taken from Private Access' last filing with the Commission, which was a Form 12b-25 filed with the Commission on November 15, 2005. The USPS tracking system confirms that delivery was attempted on September 26, 2019. It was determined that there is no such number, and the addressee was unknown. The package was returned to the SEC. See Exhibit 1 at pp. 3 - 5.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on October 17, 2019.
