SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 88084 / January 29, 2020

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19316

In the Matter of

ARAMEX INTERNATIONAL LIMITED,

Respondent.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an order instituting administrative proceedings (“OIP”) on August 6, 2019, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against Aramex International Limited.<sup>1</sup>

On September 6, 2019, the Division of Enforcement filed the Declaration of Vinyard Cooke, which stated that, consistent with Rule 141(a)(2)(ii) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice,<sup>2</sup> service of the OIP was made on the registered agent of Aramex International Limited on August 15, 2019. On September 30, 2019, the Division filed a motion requesting that the Commission find Aramex International Limited in default for not filing answers and that it revoke the registration of each class of its securities based on the record and the allegations in the OIP.

As stated in the OIP, Aramex International Limited’s answer was required to be filed within ten days of service of the OIP.<sup>3</sup> As of the date of this order, Aramex International Limited has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Aramex International Limited is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by February 12, 2020 why the registration of their securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Aramex International Limited fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.<sup>4</sup> Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
