SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 90486 / November 23, 2020

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19486

In the Matter of

HAWK STREET ACQUISITION CORP. AND MOBAD
SERVICE CORPORATION

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AS TO HAWK STREET ACQUISITION CORP.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on September 23, 2019, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondent Hawk Street Acquisition Corp. (“Respondent”).¹

On October 17, 2019, the Division of Enforcement filed the Declaration of Gina Joyce, which stated that, pursuant to Rule 141(a)(2)(ii) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice,² service of the OIP was made on Respondent on September 25, 2019. On November 20, 2019, the Division filed a motion requesting that the Commission find Respondent in default for not filing an answer and that it revoke the registration of each class of its securities based on the record and the allegations in the OIP.

As stated in the OIP, Respondent’s answer was required to be filed within ten days of service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by December 7, 2020, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and its securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is called to the Commission's March 18, 2020 order regarding the filing and service of papers, which provides that pending further order of the Commission parties to the extent possible shall submit all filings electronically at apfilings@sec.gov.⁵
