SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 91435 / March 29, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19860

In the Matter of

SIRRUS CORP. and SINORAMA
CORPORATION,

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an order instituting administrative proceedings (“OIP”) on July 8, 2020, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against Sirrus Corp. and Sinorama Corporation (collectively, “Respondents”).¹

On September 24, 2020, the Division of Enforcement filed a Declaration of Gina Joyce, which stated that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii),² service of the OIP was made on Sirrus Corp. on August 6, 2020 and Sinorama Corporation on August 11, 2020.

As stated in the OIP, Respondents’ answers were required to be filed within ten days of service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondents have not filed answers. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondents are ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by April 12, 2021, why the registrations of their securities should not be revoked by default due to their failures to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondents fail to respond to this order to show cause, they may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against them, and the registration of their securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is called to the Commission's March 18, 2020 order regarding the filing and service of papers, which provides that pending further order of the Commission parties to the extent possible shall submit all filings electronically at apfilings@sec.gov.⁵ Also, the Commission's Rules of Practice were recently amended to include new e-filing requirements, which take effect on April 12, 2021.⁶

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
