SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 92094 / June 2, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-20023

In the Matter of
V3 SEMICONDUCTOR, INC.

AMENDED ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on September 18, 2020, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondent V3 Semiconductor, Inc. (“Respondent”).¹

On November 6, 2020, the Division of Enforcement filed the Declaration of Sandhya C. Harris, which established that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii), service of the OIP was made on Respondent on October 7, 2020.²

As stated in the OIP, Respondent’s answer was required to be filed within ten days of service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by June 16, 2021, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

Ct. 1504, 1513 & n.7 (2017) (holding that “in cases governed by the Hague Service Convention, service by mail is permissible if two conditions are met: first, the receiving state has not objected to service by mail; and second, service by mail is authorized under otherwise-applicable law” and noting that Canada does not object to service by mail).

³ Rules of Practice 151(a), 160(b), 220(b), 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.151(a), .160(b), .220(b).

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registrations of its securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is called to the Commission's March 18, 2020 order regarding the filing and service of papers, which provides that pending further order of the Commission parties to the extent possible shall submit all filings electronically at apfilings@sec.gov.⁵ Also, the Commission's Rules of Practice were recently amended to include new e-filing requirements, which took effect on April 12, 2021.⁶

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
