before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 92878 / September 3, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19480

In the Matter of

RONALD P. HALLER

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On September 20, 2019, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting administrative proceedings (“OIP”) against Ronald P. Haller pursuant to Section 17A(c)(4)(C) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.<sup>1</sup> On May 18, 2021, the Division of Enforcement filed a certificate of service, which attached proof establishing that personal service of the OIP was made on Haller on May 4, 2021, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(iv).<sup>2</sup>

As stated in the OIP, Haller’s answer was required to be filed within 20 days of service of the OIP.<sup>3</sup> As of the date of this order, Haller has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Haller is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by September 17, 2021, why he should not be deemed to be in default and why this proceeding should not be determined against him due to his failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. Haller’s submission shall address the reasons for their failure to timely file an answer, and include a proposed answer to be accepted in the event that the Commission does not enter a default against them.

When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.<sup>4</sup> The OIP informed Haller that a failure to file an answer could result in his being deemed in default and the proceedings determined against him.<sup>5</sup>

If Haller files a response to this order to show cause, the Division may file a reply within 14 days after its service. If Haller does not file a response, the Division shall file a motion for entry of an order of default and the imposition of remedial sanctions by October 15, 2021. The motion for sanctions should address each statutory element of the relevant provisions of Section 17A(c)(4)(C) of the Exchange Act.<sup>6</sup> The motion should discuss relevant authority relating to the legal basis for, and the appropriateness of, the requested sanctions and include evidentiary support sufficient to make an individualized assessment of whether those sanctions are in the public interest.<sup>7</sup> The parties may file opposition and reply briefs within the deadlines provided by the Rules of Practice.<sup>8</sup> The failure to timely oppose a dispositive motion is itself a basis for a finding of default;<sup>9</sup> it may result in the determination of particular claims, or the proceeding as a whole, adversely to the non-moving party and may be deemed a forfeiture of arguments that could have been raised at that time.<sup>10</sup>
