SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 93299 / October 13, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-20470

In the Matter of ATI NATIONWIDE HOLDING CORP.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on August 24, 2021, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondent ATI Nationwide Holding Corp. (“Respondent”).¹

On September 23, 2021, the Division of Enforcement filed a Declaration of Sandhya C. Harris, which established that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii),² service of the OIP was made on Respondent on August 31, 2021.

As stated in the OIP, Respondent’s answer was required to be filed within ten days of the service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by October 27, 2021, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an ² 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(ii). The Declaration was accompanied by a certificate of service that stated service of the Declaration was made via email to “Counsel for Respondent.” But the named counsel has not entered an appearance in this case, and the certificate of service does not otherwise explain why service upon the named counsel is proper under the Commission’s Rules of Practice. Therefore, by October 27, 2021, the Division shall file a corrected certificate of service. See Rule of Practice 151(d), 17 C.F.R. § 201.151(d).

answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is directed to the most recent amendments to the Commission's Rules of Practice, which took effect on April 12, 2021, and which include new e-filing requirements.⁵

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
