SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 93493 / November 1, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-20557

In the Matter of
GELTECH SOLUTIONS, INC.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on September 15, 2021, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondent GelTech Solutions, Inc. (“Respondent”).¹

On October 5, 2021, the Division of Enforcement filed a Declaration of Gina Joyce, which established that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii),² service of the OIP was made on Respondent on September 20, 2021.³

As stated in the OIP, Respondent’s answer was required to be filed within ten days of the service of the OIP.⁴ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

² 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(ii).

³ The declaration stated that the “USPS tracking system confirms that delivery of the OIP was attempted on September 20, 2021, but forwarding had expired.” The Commission subsequently requested clarification of whether the mailing had been returned to the Division with a new address attached, in which case the Division was directed to resend the OIP to the new address. GelTech Sols., Inc., Exchange Act Release No. 93419, 2021 WL 4974916 (Oct. 25, 2021). On October 27, 2021, however, the Division filed a status report stating that, in returning the mailing, USPS did not provide a new address for Respondent. Under the circumstances, our rules do not require the Division to have made any further effort to effect service.

⁴ GelTech Sols., Inc., 2021 WL 4242578, at *2; Rules of Practice 151(a), 160(b), 220(b), 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.151(a), 201.160(b), 201.220(b).

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by November 15, 2021, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.⁵ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is directed to the most recent amendments to the Commission's Rules of Practice, which took effect on April 12, 2021, and which include new e-filing requirements.⁶

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.

Secretary
