Release No. 94849 / May 4, 2022

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-20091

In the Matter of

CASIMER ANTHONY POLANCHEK

ORDER DIRECTING SUBMISSION FROM THE DIVISION OF ENFORCEMENT

On September 28, 2020, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting administrative proceedings (“OIP”) against Casimer Anthony Polanchek pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.¹ On January 10, 2022, the Division of Enforcement filed a Supplemental Status Report Regarding Service appending a process server’s declaration, which established that service of the OIP was made on Polanchek on December 19, 2021, pursuant to Rule 141(a)(2)(i) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice.² Polanchek did not answer the OIP.

On February 8, 2022, the Commission issued an order requiring Polanchek to show cause by February 22, 2022, why he should not be deemed to be in default and why this proceeding should not be determined against him due to his failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding.³ If Polanchek did not file a response, the order required the Division to file a motion for default and other relief by March 22, 2022.⁴ Although Polanchek has not responded to the order to show cause, the Division has not filed a motion for default and other relief.

Accordingly, the Division of Enforcement is ORDERED to file a motion for default and other relief by June 1, 2022. As noted in the Commission’s February 8, 2022 order, the motion for sanctions should address each statutory element of the relevant provisions of Section 15(b) of the Exchange Act.⁵ The motion should discuss relevant authority relating to the legal basis for, and the appropriateness of, the requested sanctions and include evidentiary support sufficient to make an individualized assessment of whether those sanctions are in the public interest.⁶ The parties may file opposition and reply briefs within the deadlines provided by the Rules of Practice.⁷ The failure to timely oppose a dispositive motion is itself a basis for a finding of default;⁸ it may result in the determination of particular claims, or the proceeding as a whole, adversely to the non-moving party and may be deemed a forfeiture of arguments that could have been raised at that time.⁹

The parties' attention is directed to the most recent amendments to the Commission's Rules of Practice, which took effect on April 12, 2021, and which include new e-filing requirements.¹⁰
