Release No. 95290 / July 14, 2022

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-20748

In the Matter of
PARAGONCOIN, LIMITED

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on February 10, 2022, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondent ParagonCoin, Limited (“Respondent”), a stricken Gibraltar corporation located in Gibraltar.¹

On June 29, 2022, the Division of Enforcement filed a Declaration of Gina Joyce, which established that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii) and (iv),² service of the OIP was made on Respondent on May 6, 2022.

As stated in the OIP, Respondent’s answer was required to be filed within ten days of the service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Ct. 1504, 1512-13 & n.7 (2017) (holding that “in cases governed by the Hague Service Convention, service by mail is permissible if two conditions are met: first, the receiving state has not objected to service by mail; and second, service by mail is authorized under otherwise-applicable law”); Rystar Commc’ns Ltd., Exchange Act Release No. 92477, 2021 WL 3128187, at *1 n.2 (July 23, 2021) (same); Hague Conference on Private International Law, United Kingdom – Central Authority & practical information, <https://www.hcch.net/en/states/authorities/details3/?aid=681> (confirming United Kingdom does not object to service under Hague Convention Article 10(a)); <https://www.hcch.net/en/instruments/conventions/status-table/extensions/?cid=17&mid=427> (reflecting that the United Kingdom extended the Hague Service Convention to Gibraltar, a British overseas territory, on May 5, 1970).

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by July 28, 2022, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is directed to the most recent amendments to the Commission's Rules of Practice, which took effect on April 12, 2021, and which include new e-filing requirements.⁵
