SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 95895 / September 23, 2022

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19920

In the Matter of

PATRICK MORGAN SCHIRO

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On August 24, 2020, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting administrative proceedings (“OIP”) against Patrick Morgan Schiro pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.¹ On March 9, 2021, the Division of Enforcement filed a motion for entry of default and leave to file a motion for summary disposition. The Division’s motion was accompanied by the declaration of Sheldon Mui, appending a process server’s declaration, which establishes that service of the OIP was made personally on Schiro on October 14, 2020, pursuant to Rule 141(a)(2)(i) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice.²

As stated in the OIP, Schiro’s answer was required to be filed within 20 days of service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Schiro has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Schiro is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by October 7, 2022, why he should not be deemed to be in default and why this proceeding should not be determined against him due to his failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. Schiro’s submission shall address the reasons for his failure to timely file an answer, and include a proposed answer to be accepted in the event that the Commission does not enter a default against him. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.⁴ The OIP informed Schiro that a failure to file an answer could result in deeming him in default and determining the proceedings against him.⁵

If Schiro files a response to this order to show cause, the Division may file a reply within 14 days after its service. If Schiro does not file a response, the Division shall file a motion for entry of an order of default and the imposition of remedial sanctions by November 4, 2022.⁶ The motion for sanctions should address each statutory element of the relevant provisions of Section 203(f) of the Advisers Act.⁷ The motion should discuss relevant authority relating to the legal basis for, and the appropriateness of, the requested sanctions and include evidentiary support sufficient to make an individualized assessment of whether those sanctions are in the public interest.⁸ The parties may file opposition and reply briefs within the deadlines provided by the Rules of Practice.⁹ The failure to timely oppose a dispositive motion is itself a basis for a finding of default;¹⁰ it may result in the determination of particular claims, or the proceeding as a whole,

⁶ We deny the Division’s request for leave to file a motion for summary disposition as unnecessary. When a respondent defaults, the Division generally should file a motion for entry of default and remedial sanctions. See, e.g., Salvatore D. Palermo, Exchange Act Release No. 91301, 2021 WL 933260, at *1 (Mar. 11, 2021); Lawrence Allen DeShetler, Advisers Act Release No. 5411, 2019 WL 6221492, at *1 (Nov. 21, 2019). We recognize that, at times, we have referred to such a motion as a “motion for summary disposition on the issue of remedial sanctions.” E.g., Steven Pagartanis, Exchange Act Release No. 90781, 2020 WL 7632297, at *1 (Dec. 22, 2020). But a motion for summary disposition can be filed only after the respondent files an answer. Rule of Practice 250(b)-(c), 17 C.F.R. § 201.250(b)-(c). We see no need to waive this requirement here because the Division may file a motion for sanctions if Schiro does not respond to this order.

Dicken*, Exchange Act Release No. 89526, 2020 WL 4678066, at *2 (Aug. 12, 2020) (requesting additional information from the Division “regarding the factual predicate for Dicken’s convictions” and “why these facts establish” the need for remedial sanctions); *see also Shawn K. The parties' attention is directed to the most recent amendments to the Commission's Rules of Practice, which took effect on April 12, 2021, and which include new e-filing requirements.¹²

Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final opinion and order resolving the matter.
