SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 96204 / November 1, 2022

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-21019

In the Matter of

TARONIS TECHNOLOGIES, INC. (N/K/A BBHC, INC.)

ORDER REGARDING SERVICE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”), on August 31, 2022, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondent Taronis Technologies, Inc., n/k/a BBHC, Inc. (“Respondent”).<sup>1</sup>

Rule 141(a)(2)(ii) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice provides that service of an order instituting proceedings may be made on “an issuer of a class of securities registered with the Commission,” such as Respondent, “by sending a copy of the order addressed to the most recent address shown on the entity’s most recent filing with the Commission by U.S. Postal Service certified, registered, or express mail and obtaining a confirmation of attempted delivery.”<sup>2</sup> The rule also permits service by sending the OIP to an entity’s “managing or general agent, or any other agent authorized by appointment or law to receive such notice,” by “U.S. Postal Service certified, registered or express mail and obtaining a confirmation of receipt.”<sup>3</sup>

On October 26, 2022, the Division of Enforcement filed a Notice of Filing Proof of Service that attached tracking information and a copy of a certified mail receipt. The Notice stated that the attachments show that on October 11, 2022, the OIP was served on Respondent pursuant to Rule 141(a). The attachments, in turn, reflect that the OIP was sent to Respondent “c/o VCorp Services, LLC” to an address in Wilmington, Delaware by U.S. Postal Service certified mail and delivered to an individual at that address on October 11, 2022. But the Notice did not state the specific method of service used under Rule 141(a); how the address was determined for service of process; why the OIP was sent “c/o VCorp Services, LLC”; and if VCorp Services, LLC is Respondent’s agent, how the Division determined that fact.

To assist the Office of the Secretary in maintaining a record of service that establishes that the OIP has been properly served,<sup>4</sup> IT IS ORDERED that the Division of Enforcement file a status report with declaration concerning service of the OIP by November 15, 2022, and every 28 days thereafter until service is accomplished. Any such filing should address the issues identified above.

The parties’ attention is directed to the most recent amendments to the Commission’s Rules of Practice, which took effect on April 12, 2021, and which include e-filing requirements.<sup>5</sup>

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.

Vanessa A. Countryman
Secretary
