INVESTMENT ADVISERS ACT OF 1940
Release No. 6093 / August 19, 2022

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-20086

In the Matter of

GARY EDWARD HAYNES

ORDER

On September 28, 2020, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting administrative proceedings (“OIP”) against Gary Edward Haynes pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.¹ On August 18, 2022, the Division of Enforcement filed a motion to amend the OIP. The motion includes a certificate of service showing that it was sent by certified mail to Haynes at the Ionia Correctional Facility. However, a search of the Offender Tracking System at the Michigan Department of Corrections suggests that Haynes (Offender No. 536591) is now at the Central Michigan Correctional Facility at 320 Hubbard; St. Louis, MI 48880.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, by September 2, 2022, the Division of Enforcement confirm Haynes’s current address and file either (1) a certificate of service reflecting that the motion to amend the OIP has been served on Haynes at his current address, or (2) a status report indicating that the Ionia Correctional Facility address is Haynes’s current address.

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
