SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 97975 / July 25, 2023

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-21462

In the Matter of
SUNRIDGE INTERNATIONAL, INC.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On May 25, 2023, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) against Sunridge International, Inc. (“Respondent”) pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.¹ On June 22, 2023, the Division of Enforcement filed a Declaration of Gina Joyce, which established that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii),² service of the OIP was made on Respondent on May 31, 2023.

As stated in the OIP, Respondent’s answer was required to be filed within ten days of the service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by August 8, 2023, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. Respondent’s submission shall address the reasons for its failure to timely file an answer and include a proposed answer to be accepted in the event that the Commission does not enter a default against Respondent. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.
