If a prehearing conference was not held, both parties shall file by that date a statement, jointly or separately, advising the Commission of that fact and of the efforts made to meet and confer. Pursuant to Rule of Practice 180(c), a party's failure to comply with this order may result in the Commission's determination of the matter at issue against that party, entry of a default, dismissal of the proceeding, or the prohibition of the introduction of evidence or the exclusion of testimony regarding the matter at issue.⁵

The parties' attention is directed to the e-filing requirements in the Rules of Practice.⁶ We also remind the parties that any document filed with the Commission must be served upon all participants in the proceeding and be accompanied by a certificate of service.⁷ Filing a document through the Commission's electronic filing system does not serve it on opposing counsel.⁸
