SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 98334 / September 8, 2023

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-21458

In the Matter of AMBG, INC.

RENEWED ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On May 25, 2023, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting proceedings (“OIP”) against AMBG, Inc. (“Respondent”) pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.¹ On July 24, 2023, the Division of Enforcement filed a Status Report, which established that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii),² service of the OIP was made on Respondent on July 18, 2023. As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer.

On August 18, 2023, the Commission issued an order directing Respondent to show cause why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer or otherwise to defend this proceeding. But it appears that the order to show cause may not have been properly served on Respondent. Under the circumstances, we find it appropriate to renew our order to show cause and extend the deadline by which Respondent must respond to that order. The prehearing conference and the hearing remain continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by September 22, 2023, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer or otherwise to defend this proceeding. Respondent’s submission shall address the reasons for its failure to timely file an answer and include a proposed answer to be accepted in the event that the Commission does not enter a default against Respondent. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.³ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is directed to the e-filing requirements in the Rules of Practice.⁴ We also remind the parties that any document filed with the Commission must be served upon all participants in the proceeding and be accompanied by a certificate of service.⁵
