INVESTMENT ADVISERS ACT OF 1940
Release No. 6466 / October 19, 2023

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-21097

In the Matter of

GRENDA GROUP, LLC

ORDER GRANTING REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME

On September 16, 2022, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting administrative proceedings against Grenda Group, LLC, pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.¹ Grenda Group filed its answer on February 28, 2023.² After the parties held a prehearing conference, the Commission issued an order setting a briefing schedule for the Division’s proposed motion for summary disposition.³ On September 28, 2023, the Division filed a motion to “reset” the briefing schedule for its motion for summary disposition. We construe the Division’s motion to reset the briefing schedule as a request for an extension of time.⁴ Grenda Group has not opposed the Division’s motion.

Under the circumstances, it appears appropriate to grant the requested extension for good cause shown.⁵ Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the Division’s request for an extension of time to file its opening brief until November 20, 2023, is granted. It is further ORDERED that Grenda Group’s opposition brief is due by December 4, 2023, and the Division’s reply is due by December 18, 2023.

⁵ See Rule of Practice 161, 17 C.F.R. § 201.161; see also In re Pending Administrative Proceedings, Exchange Act Release No. 88415, 2020 WL 1322001 (Mar. 18, 2020) (stating that “pending further order of the Commission, all reasonable requests for extensions of time will not be disfavored as stated in Rule 161” (citing 17 C.F.R. § 201.161(b)(1))).

A brief in support of a motion for summary disposition should include references to relevant undisputed pleaded facts along with facts eligible to be officially noted pursuant to Rule of Practice 323,⁶ and should include, as attachments, relevant declarations, affidavits, and other supporting documentation. An opposition to a motion for summary disposition should precisely specify in the brief the basis for that opposition, identify with particularity the material factual issues in dispute, and address relevant Commission precedent.⁷ Pursuant to Rule of Practice 180(c), a party's failure to file a brief or comply with this order may result in the Commission's determination of the matter at issue against that party, entry of default, dismissal of the proceeding, or the prohibition of the introduction of evidence or the exclusion of testimony regarding the matter at issue.⁸

⁶ 17 C.F.R. § 201.323.
