SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 99821 / March 21, 2024

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-21595

In the Matter of
NANO WORLD PROJECTS CORP.

ORDER DISMISSING PROCEEDING

On August 31, 2023, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) against Nano World Projects Corp. (“Respondent”) pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.<sup>1</sup> The Commission instituted proceedings to determine, among other things, whether it was necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend or revoke Respondent’s securities registration. The OIP was served on Respondent on September 5, 2023, but Respondent did not file an answer.

On February 7, 2024, the Commission directed additional briefing, noting that Respondent’s securities registration may have been revoked in a prior Commission proceeding under Exchange Act Section 12(j).<sup>2</sup> The order directed the parties to file additional written submissions addressing whether there is any registration or class of registered securities that can be revoked in this matter, and if not, whether any remedy is available to the Commission or whether this proceeding should be dismissed.

On February 9, 2024, the Division of Enforcement filed a motion to dismiss this proceeding. The Division represented that Respondent’s securities registration had been revoked in a prior Commission proceeding and stated that it was therefore appropriate to dismiss the present proceeding. Respondent did not respond to the Commission’s order directing additional
