Release No. 6523 / January 5, 2024

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-21098

In the Matter of

GREGORY M. GREENDA

ORDER EXTENDING TIME FOR RESPONDENT TO FILE A BRIEF OPPOSING
SUMMARY DISPOSITION AND FOR THE DIVISION OF ENFORCEMENT TO FILE A REPLY

On September 16, 2022, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting administrative proceedings against Gregory M. Grenda pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.¹ On November 20, 2023, the Division filed a motion for summary disposition. In December 2023, we issued orders extending the time for Grenda to file any opposition to the Division's motion.²

On December 29, 2023, Grenda requested another extension of time to file his opposition to the Division's motion. Grenda states that he requires an additional week to complete his opposition brief because his counsel has been in civil and criminal court trials for much of the time since the Division filed its motion and therefore "unable to work on the opposition papers" and that a medical condition rendered the counsel unable to complete the opposition. Grenda further represents that the Division does not oppose the request, on the condition that the Division's time for filing its reply brief be extended too. It appears appropriate to grant Grenda's request for good cause shown.³

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Grenda's opposition is due by January 12, 2024, and the Division's reply is due by February 7, 2024. Grenda's opposition brief should precisely specify the basis for that opposition, identify with particularity the material factual issues in dispute, and address relevant Commission precedent.⁴

Pursuant to Rule of Practice 180(c), a party's failure to file a required brief or comply with this order may result in the Commission's determination of the matter at issue against that party, entry of default, dismissal of the proceeding, or the prohibition of the introduction of evidence or the exclusion of testimony regarding the matter at issue.⁵
