SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 102415 / February 13, 2025

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-22297

In the Matter of

RYSTAR COMMUNICATIONS LTD.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On November 7, 2024, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting proceedings (“OIP”) against Rystar Communications Ltd. (“Respondent”) pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.¹ On January 16, 2025, the Division of Enforcement filed a Declaration of Gina Joyce, which established that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii),² service of the OIP was made on Respondent, a dissolved Canadian corporation located in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, on December 27, 2024.

As stated in the OIP, Respondent’s answer was required to be filed within ten days after service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by February 27, 2025, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer or otherwise to defend this proceeding. Respondent’s submission shall address the reasons for its failure to timely file an answer and include a proposed answer to be accepted in the event that the Commission does not deem Respondent in default. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP may be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is directed to the e-filing requirements in the Rules of Practice.⁵ We also remind the parties that any document filed with the Commission must be served upon all participants in the proceeding and be accompanied by a certificate of service.⁶
