SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 104466 / December 19, 2025

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-22538

In the Matter of MJ HOLDINGS, INC.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On September 9, 2025, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting proceedings (“OIP”) against MJ Holdings, Inc. (“Respondent”) under Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.¹ The OIP instituted proceedings to determine whether it is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors to revoke the registration of each class of Respondent’s securities registered under Exchange Act Section 12.

The OIP also warned Respondent that if it failed to file an answer within ten days after service of the OIP, the Commission could deem Respondent to be in default, deem the allegations of the OIP to be true, and determine the proceedings against Respondent without a public hearing.² On November 20, 2025, the Division of Enforcement filed a Declaration of Gina Joyce, which established that service of the OIP was made on Respondent on September 13, 2025.³ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by January 2, 2026, why the Commission should not deem it to be in default due to its failure to file an answer or otherwise to defend this proceeding and revoke the registration of each class of its registered securities. In its submission, Respondent shall address the reasons for its failure to timely file an answer and include a proposed answer to be accepted if the Commission does not deem Respondent to be in default.
