SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 81036 / June 27, 2017

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), of trading in the securities of Environmental Packaging Technologies Holdings, Inc. (OTC PINK: EPTI), of Houston, Texas, at 9:30 a.m. on June 28, 2017, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. on July 12, 2017.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of EPTI because of concerns regarding: (i) the accuracy and adequacy of publicly available information in the marketplace since at least June 9, 2017 regarding statements in third party stock promotion materials pertaining to Environmental Packaging’s 2016 revenues, projected 2017 revenues, and the company’s buyout potential; and (ii) recent trading activity in the security that potentially reflects manipulative or deceptive activities. Environmental Packaging is a Nevada corporation with its principal place of business located in Houston, Texas. Its stock is quoted on OTC Link (previously, “Pink Sheets”), operated by OTC Markets Group, Inc. (“OTC Link”), under the ticker symbol EPTI.

The Commission acknowledges FINRA’s assistance in this matter.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, he should refrain from entering quotations relating to EPTI’s securities until such time as he has familiarized himself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.
