

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
Washington, D.C.

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 82203 / December 1, 2017

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension of trading in the securities of Caleminder, Inc. (CMND) commencing at 9:30 a.m. EST on December 4, 2017, terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on December 15, 2017.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of the foregoing company due to a lack of current and accurate information about the company, including the identity of current management and plans for continuing operations. In addition, Caleminder is delinquent because it has not filed its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2017 and it has expressed no intention of complying with its reporting obligation going forward. This order was entered pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act).

The Commission cautions brokers, dealers, shareholders and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by this company.

Brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11, at the termination of the trading suspensions, no quotation may be entered relating to the securities of the subject company unless and until the broker or dealer has strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by the rule, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to the securities of companies that have been subject to trading suspensions until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. Any broker or dealer with questions regarding the rule should contact the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, DC at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker, dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, they should immediately communicate it to the Division of Enforcement at (202) 551-4562 (Keith O'Donnell), or (202) 551-4960 (Josh Felker) or by e-mail at felker@sec.gov.
