SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 88549 / April 3, 2020

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), of trading in the securities of No Borders, Inc. (“NBDR”), of Queen Creek, Arizona at 9:30 a.m. EDT on April 6, 2020, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EDT on April 20, 2020.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of NBDR because of questions and concerns regarding the adequacy and accuracy of publicly available information concerning NBDR, including, since at least March 11, 2020, among other things, statements about NBDR’s products and business activities related to the COVID-19 pandemic, including NBDR’s COVID-19 specimen collection kits, an agreement to bring COVID-19 test kits to the United States, and NBDR’s activities related to the distribution of personal protective equipment. Those concerns relate to statements NBDR made in: (1) social media posts since at least March 11, 2020; (2) press releases since at least March 16, 2020; (3) NBDR’s website since at least March 24, 2020; and (4) submissions to OTC Markets Group, Inc. since at least March 25, 2020. This order was entered pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act).

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not it has complied with the rule, it should not enter any quotation but immediately contact the staff in the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance, at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to NBDR’s securities until such time as it has familiarized himself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker, dealer or other person has any information that may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact Marc J. Blau, Assistant Regional Director, at (323) 965-3975, or Roberto A. Tercero, Senior Counsel, at (323) 965-3891. The Commission appreciates the assistance of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).
