SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 88815 / May 5, 2020

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, of trading of the securities of Custom Protection Services, Inc. (CSPS) (CIK No. 0000894049), of Conroe, Texas, at 9:30 a.m. EDT on May 6, 2020, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EDT on May 19, 2020.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of CSPS because of questions regarding the accuracy and adequacy of information about the Company in the marketplace since at least March 18, 2020. Those questions relate to statements CSPS made in press releases issued by the Company between March 18, 2020 and April 20, 2020 about its development of frontline screening solutions for COVID-19, the “overwhelming” response it had received for the screening solutions, and its estimate that it would earn gross revenue from new contracts for the screening solutions of $10,000 per day.

The Commission cautions brokers, dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not it has complied with the rule, it should not enter any quotation but immediately contact the staff in the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance, at (202) 5515777. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to CSPS’s securities until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation that is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker, dealer or other person has any information that may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact John O. Enright, Assistant Regional Director, at (212) 336-9138. The Commission appreciates the assistance of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.
