SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Release No. 90494 / November 23, 2020

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, of trading in the securities of Dougherty's Pharmacy, Inc. ("MYDP") (CIK No. 1080029), of Dallas, Texas, at 9:30 a.m. EST on November 24, 2020, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on December 8, 2020.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of MYDP due to a lack of current and accurate information about the company because it has not filed certain periodic reports with the Commission.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by the rule, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to the securities of this company that has been subject to the trading suspension until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. Any broker or dealer with questions regarding the rule should contact the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, DC at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation that is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information that may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact Barry Isenman, Assistant Regional Director, Chicago Regional Office of the Commission at (312) 866-8515, or the Delinquent Filings Branch of the Commission's Division of Enforcement at (202) 551-5466 or by email at DelinquentFilings@sec.gov.
