I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT AND INTRODUCTION

PNC Capital Advisors, LLC, (the "Applicant" or the "Adviser") hereby applies to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") for an order, pursuant to Section 206A of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Act"), and Rule 206(4)-5(e), exempting the Adviser from the two-year prohibition on compensation imposed by Rule 206(4)-5(a)(1) under the Act for investment advisory services provided to the government entities described below following a contribution to a candidate for President of the United States by a covered associate as described in this Application, subject to the representations set forth herein (the "Application").

Section 206A of the Act authorizes the Commission to "conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person or transaction . . . from any provision or provisions of [the Act] or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of [the Act]."

Section 206(4) of the Act prohibits investment advisers from engaging "in any act, practice, or course of business which is fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative," and directs the Commission to adopt such rules and regulations, define, and prescribe means reasonably designed to prevent, such acts, practices, or courses of business. Under this authority, the Commission adopted Rule 206(4)-5 (the "Rule"), which prohibits a registered investment adviser from providing "investment advisory services for compensation to a government entity within two years after a contribution to an official of the government entity is made by the investment adviser or any covered associate of the investment adviser."

The term "government entity" is defined in Rule 206(4)-5(f)(5)(ii) as including a pool of assets sponsored or established by a State or political subdivision, or any agency, authority, or instrumentality thereof, including a defined benefit plan. The definition of an "official" of such government entity in Rule 206(4)-5(f)(6)(ii) includes the holder of or candidate for an elective office with authority to appoint a person directly or indirectly able to influence the outcome of the government entity's hiring an investment adviser. The "covered associates" of an investment adviser are defined in Rule 206(4)-5(f)(2)(i) as including its managing member, executive officer or other individuals with similar status or function. Rule 206(4)-5(c) specifies that, when a government entity invests in a covered investment pool, the investment adviser to that covered investment pool will be treated as providing advisory services directly to the government entity. "Covered investment pool" is defined in Rule 206(4)-5(f)(3)(ii) as including any company that would be an investment company under Section 3(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), but for the exclusion provided from that definition by either Section 3(c)(1), Section 3(c) (7), or Section 3(c)(11) of the 1940 Act.

Rule 206(4)-5(b) provides exceptions from the two-year prohibition under Rule 206(4)-5(a)(1) with respect to contributions that do not exceed a de minimis threshold, were made by a person more than six months before becoming a covered associate, or were discovered by the adviser and returned by the official within a specified period and subject to certain other conditions. Should no exception be available, Rule 206(4)-5(e) permits an investment adviser to apply for, and the Commission to conditionally or unconditionally grant, an exemption from the Rule 206(4)-5(a)(1) prohibition on compensation.

In determining whether to grant an exemption, the Rule contemplates that the Commission will consider, among other things, (i) whether the exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act; (ii) whether the investment adviser, (A) before the contribution resulting in the prohibition was made, adopted and implemented policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent violations of the Rule; (B) prior to or at the time of the contribution which resulted in such prohibition was made, had no actual knowledge of the contribution; and (C) after learning of the contribution, (1) has taken all available steps to cause the contributor involved in making the contribution which resulted in such prohibition to obtain a return of the contribution, and (2) has taken such other remedial or preventative measures as may be appropriate under the circumstances; (iii) whether, at the time of the contribution, the contributor was a covered associate or otherwise an employee of the investment adviser, or was seeking such employment; (iv) the timing and amount of the contribution which resulted in the prohibition; (v) the nature of the election (e.g., Federal, State or local); and (vi) the contributor's apparent intent or motive in making the contribution that resulted in the prohibition, as evidenced by the facts and circumstances surrounding such contribution.

Based on those considerations and the facts described in this Application, the Adviser respectfully submits that the relief requested herein is appropriate in the public interest and is consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act. Accordingly, the Adviser requests an order exempting it to the extent described herein from the prohibition under Rule 206(4)-5(a)(1) to permit it to receive compensation for investment advisory services provided to the Clients (as defined below) within the two-year period following the contribution identified herein to an official of such government entities by a covered associate of the Adviser.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

This Application stems from a $1,000 contribution to Ohio Governor John Kasich's Presidential campaign reported as received by the campaign on April 22, 2016.

A. The Adviser

The Adviser is a financial services firm registered with the Commission as an investment adviser pursuant to the Act. The Adviser provides discretionary investment advisory services to a wide variety of investors with aggregate assets under management of approximately $48.7 billion as of December 31, 2016. The Adviser is a wholly-owned subsidiary of PNC Bank, National Association (the "Bank"), and the Bank is a wholly-owned subsidiary of PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. ("PNC").

B. The Government Entities

Certain Ohio government entities have established separately managed accounts to which the Adviser provides investment advisory services. For purposes of this Application, these Ohio government entities are referred to individually as a "Client" and collectively as the "Clients."

C. The Contributor

The individual who made the campaign contribution that triggered the two-year compensation ban (the "Contribution") is Grant Duffield (the "Contributor"). The Contributor is a dual-hatted employee of the Bank and the Adviser. The Contributor has worked within PNC for 16 years. In his role as a business development officer of both the Adviser and the Bank, he solicited and continues to solicit business for the Adviser and the Bank from private corporations and non-profit entities in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, California and Texas. The Contributor has never solicited business in Ohio, whether for the Adviser or the Bank. Although the Contributor had not solicited government entities or served in any other covered associate position, the Adviser listed him as a covered associate in its records maintained under SEC Rule 204-2, and subjected him to its policies for a covered associate such as its political contribution pre-clearance procedures and political contribution quarterly certifications.

In June 2016 the Bank began to contemplate promoting the Contributor to Market Director. As Market Director he would have oversight over all sales operations in parts of Pennsylvania, including oversight of personnel soliciting government entities in Pennsylvania for investment advisory services business. In anticipation of this promotion, in December 2016 the Contributor solicited a government entity for investment advisory services business for the first time (a local government entity in Pennsylvania). However, after the PNC Corporate Ethics Department's discovery of the Contribution (as described in greater detail below), a hold was placed on the Contributor's promotion. The hold remains in effect.

The Contributor first became a covered associate pursuant to Rule 206(4)-5(f)(2) when he solicited a governmental entity in December 2016, although he had been treated as a covered associate by the Adviser for some time. Thus, the Contribution triggers the Rule's ban under the two-year lookback provision in Rule 206(4)-5(b)(2). Please note that at no time has the Contributor been involved in soliciting the Clients, and, in fact, he has never communicated with the Clients. Moreover, the Contributor has never solicited any other state or local Ohio government entity.

Other than the Contribution, the Contributor has made no contribution to an individual candidate since 2007, which was a contribution to a United States Congressman running for President. The Contributor's only other political contributions have been to PNC's federal political action committee that only makes contributions to federal incumbents running for re-election or private citizens running for federal office.

D. The Official

The recipient of the Contribution was John Kasich (the "Official"), the Governor of Ohio, in his campaign for President of the United States. The Clients are overseen by boards of trustees or directors (the "Boards"), to which the Governor appoints certain members and which have influence over selecting an investment adviser. The Governor is not authorized to serve directly on any Board, or to be involved in the Clients' investment decisions. However, due to the power of appointment, the Governor is technically an "official" of each of the Clients under the Rule.

E. The Contribution

The Contributor is a long-time Republican and had been concerned by the unusually acrimonious nature of the 2016 Republican presidential primary election. The Contributor's personal friend of many years and with whom he shares similar political beliefs invited the Contributor to a fundraiser for Governor Kasich's presidential campaign held in Pittsburgh in April 2016. The Contributor and his friend live in the same town and regularly play golf together but do not conduct any business together.

Governor Kasich spoke at the fundraiser, and his campaign staff passed out contribution cards. The Contributor noticed that the cards suggested a donation of $1,000 to attend the event. The policy positions expressed by Governor Kasich during his speech impressed the Contributor, and he made a spontaneous decision to make the Contribution of $1,000 to Governor Kasich's campaign at the event. The Contribution was reported by the campaign as received on April 22, 2016, according to a report filed with, and made available online by, the Federal Election Commission (the "FEC").

The Contributor has never met Governor Kasich, other than being an attendee at the event. He did not speak with Governor Kasich at the event. Moreover, the Contributor has had no interactions with the Governor, his staff, or any other Ohio official regarding the Contribution or any other matter.

Despite the Adviser's and PNC's robust policies and procedures, as described in greater detail below, the Contributor made the Contribution without pre-clearance from PNC's Corporate Ethics Department, or disclosing the Contribution in his quarterly certification. Given that the Contributor so rarely makes political contributions, he did not think to pre-clear or disclose the Contribution as clearly required by PNC's policies, procedures and annual training. Moreover, the Contributor was focused on the Official in his capacity as a candidate for President of the United States, and did not appreciate that both the Rule and the Adviser's policy required him to pre-clear and disclose such contributions because the Official was a sitting governor. At no time did any employee of PNC or the Adviser or the Bank have any knowledge that the Contribution had been made prior to its discovery in February 2017, as described below. Moreover, the Contribution was not motivated by a desire to influence the award of investment advisory business.

F. The Adviser's Discovery of the Error and Response

The Contribution was discovered by PNC's Corporate Ethics Department in February 2017, through the controls built into its compliance procedures. Specifically, as part of PNC's required background check for his promotion to Market Director, the Contributor disclosed the Contribution in the political contribution lookback form in which any individual who is about to take a covered associate position must disclose any contribution he or she made during the prior two years. Indeed, besides being required of new employees, PNC, out of an abundance of caution, also requires the form to be submitted by current employees who are treated as covered associates and being transferred or promoted to a different covered associate position. The form expressly states that all "federal, state or local" contributions must be disclosed, which prompted the Contributor to disclose the Contribution. In contrast, the quarterly certifications simply require disclosure of "all political contributions" without listing the levels of government specifically, which may have been the reason he did not disclose the Contribution on those certifications, even though PNC policy required otherwise.

Upon discovery of the Contribution, PNC immediately notified the Contributor that the Contribution was against PNC policy and a violation of the Rule, and a refund was requested from the campaign on March 8, 2017. We understand from the campaign that it is in the process of sending the refund to the Contributor. All compensation earned that is attributable to the Clients' investments since the Contribution Date has been placed in escrow, and all future compensation subject to the two-year ban under the Rule will continue to be placed in escrow as it accrues pending the outcome of this Application. Absent exemptive relief from the Commission, that compensation will be refunded consistent with applicable laws and the Rule.

G. The Clients' Investments with the Adviser

The initial selection process pursuant to which each Client decided to establish a separate account with the Adviser, or enter into a separate account that is sub-advised by the Adviser, had been completed well before the Contribution was made. For example, one Client's account dates to 1996. One existing Client, which had numerous longstanding investment accounts with the Adviser prior to the Contribution, did open two additional separate accounts after the date of the Contribution. However, these accounts were merely opened pursuant to such Client's ordinary course of business and did not have any relationship to the Contribution. As discussed above, the Contributor has never solicited any business for the Adviser, or for the Bank, from Ohio government entities. Furthermore, he has never made presentations for, or even met with, any representatives of any Client or with any other Ohio government entities, or supervised any person who met with any Client or other Ohio government entity. Moreover, if promoted to Market Director he will neither meet with any Ohio government entities personally, nor supervise any person who solicits investment advisory services business from Ohio government entities.

H. The Adviser's Pay-to-Play Policies and Procedures

PNC's robust pay-to-play policies and procedures (the "Policy") apply to PNC's subsidiaries including the Adviser, and were adopted and implemented on March 14, 2011, well before the Contribution was made. The Policy requires that all contributions to any person (including any election committee for such person) who was, at the time of the contribution, an incumbent, candidate or successful candidate for elective office of a government entity, including a state or local official running for federal office, must be pre-cleared. There is no de minimis exemption from this pre-clearance requirement. The Policy is not limited to the Adviser's managing members, executive officers and other "covered associates," but also includes those who could in the future become covered associates. Once a pre-clearance request is received, a member of PNC's Corporate Ethics Department reviews it to determine whether the requested contribution is permissible under federal, state, and local law. In addition, the Adviser's employees must complete PNC's annual ethics training, which includes a segment on ethics requirements for personal political contributions.

Employees who are subject to the Policy are sent multiple compliance alerts reminding them of the Policy and the need to pre-clear political contributions. Employees subject to the Policy must submit a quarterly certification confirming they have disclosed all political contributions made in the prior quarter. The Contributor submitted a certification for the quarter covering April 2016 confirming that he had done so, but in fact he had not pre-cleared or disclosed the Contribution.

III. STANDARD FOR GRANTING AN EXEMPTION

In determining whether to grant an exemption, Rule 206(4)-5(e) provides that the Commission will consider, among other factors:

(1) Whether the exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act;

(2) Whether the investment adviser:

(i) before the contribution resulting in the prohibition was made, adopted and implemented policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent violations of the Rule;

(ii) prior to or at the time the contribution which resulted in such prohibition was made, had no actual knowledge of the contribution; and

(iii) after learning of the contribution,

(a) has taken all available steps to cause the contributor involved in making the contribution which resulted in such prohibition to obtain return of the contribution; and

(b) has taken such other remedial or preventive measures as may be appropriate under the circumstances;

(3) Whether, at the time of the contribution, the contributor was a covered associate or otherwise an employee of the investment adviser, or was seeking such employment;

(4) The timing and amount of the contribution which resulted in the prohibition;

(5) The nature of the election (e.g., Federal, State or local); and

(6) The contributor's apparent intent or motive in making the contribution which resulted in the prohibition, as evidenced by the facts and circumstances surrounding such contribution.

As explained below, each of these factors weighs in favor of granting the relief requested in this Application.

IV. STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF EXEMPTIVE RELIEF

The Adviser submits that an exemption from the two-year prohibition on compensation is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act. The Clients determined to invest with the Adviser and established an advisory relationship on an arm's length basis free from any improper influence as a result of the Contribution. In support of that conclusion, the Adviser notes that all of the relationships with the Clients significantly predate the Contribution; one dates to 1996. The Adviser also notes that the Official's influence over the Clients is limited to appointing members of their Boards.

The Adviser notes that the Contribution was made because of the Contributor's personal political beliefs and his concerns over the rhetoric of the unusual 2016 Republican presidential primary, not because of any desire to influence the award of investment advisory business. This conclusion is supported by the Contributor's history as a long-time Republican. Moreover, the Contributor was not involved in any solicitation of investment advisory business covered under the Rule from any government entities until seven months after the Contribution, December 2016, when he solicited a Pennsylvania local government entity. He was never involved in soliciting the investments from the Clients. Furthermore, the Contribution was discovered due to the Policy, which requires current employees moving from one covered associate position to another to submit the political contribution lookback form required of new covered associates. After discovery of the Contribution, a refund was promptly sought and the campaign agreed to make the refund, which we understand is in the process of being made.

Given the nature of the Contribution and the lack of any evidence that the Adviser or the Contributor intended to, or actually did, interfere with the Clients' merit-based process for the selection or retention of advisory services, the Clients' interests are best served by allowing the Adviser and its Clients to continue their relationships uninterrupted. Causing the Adviser to serve without compensation for a two-year period would result in a financial loss of approximately $700,000, or 700 times the amount of the Contribution. The policy underlying the Rule is served by ensuring that no improper influence is exercised over investment decisions by governmental entities as a result of campaign contributions--not by withholding compensation as a result of unintentional violations.

The other factors suggested for the Commission's consideration in Rule 206(4)-5(e) similarly weigh in favor of granting an exemption to avoid consequences disproportionate to the violation, as follows:

A. Policies and Procedures before the Contribution

The Adviser adopted and implemented the Policy, which is fully compliant with and more rigorous than the Rule's requirements, well before the Contribution Date.

B. Actual Knowledge of the Contribution

The Contributor acted as an individual when contributing to the Official's presidential campaign. Aside from the Contributor himself, no executives, employees or covered associates of the Adviser knew of the Contribution until it was self-reported by the Contributor in February 2017, as a result of the multiple controls PNC uses in connection with promotions and transfers. The Contributor did not discuss the Contribution with these parties prior to making it.

C. Adviser's Response After the Contribution

After learning of the Contribution, the Adviser, through its outside counsel, immediately caused the Contributor to request a full refund of the Contribution, as stated above. The Adviser then established escrow accounts and moved all monies impacted by the two-year compensation ban into those escrow accounts. Fees impacted by the ban will be deposited into the accounts as they accrue.

D. Status of the Contributor

The Contributor is a covered associate of the Adviser. However, he did not solicit a government entity until December 2016 (in Pennsylvania, not Ohio). His geographic area for soliciting clients or supervising others does not include Ohio, and he has never solicited or otherwise communicated with the Clients.

E. Timing and Amount of the Contribution

As noted above, the Clients' initial investments with the Adviser substantially predate the Contribution, they were made on an arm's length basis, and neither the Contributor nor the Adviser took any action to have the Official influence those investments, directly or indirectly. The Contributor did not solicit or supervise anyone who solicited the Clients with respect to these investments. Furthermore, any new investments were made in the ordinary course of business and had nothing to do with the Contribution. In the context of a presidential campaign in which the Official raised well over $19 million, the amount of the Contribution was relatively insignificant.

F. Nature of the Election and Other Facts and Circumstances

The Contributor's intent in making the Contribution was not to influence the selection or retention of the Adviser. As noted above, the Contributor is a long-time Republican who was spontaneously motivated, in a federal election, to make the Contribution solely because of his personal political beliefs and his concerns over the rhetoric of the 2016 Republican presidential primary.

Given the difficulty of proving a quid pro quo arrangement, the Adviser understands the Commission's adoption of a rule with a default of strict liability. However, the Adviser appreciates the availability of exemptive relief at the Commission's discretion where imposition of the two-year prohibition on compensation does not achieve the Rule's purposes or would result in consequences disproportionate to the mistake that was made. The Adviser respectfully submits that such is the case with the Contribution. Neither the Adviser nor the Contributor sought to interfere with the Clients' merit-based selection process for advisory services, nor did they seek to negotiate higher fees or greater ancillary benefits than would be achieved in arm's length transactions. There was no violation of the Adviser's fiduciary duty to deal fairly or disclose material conflicts given the absence of any intent or action by the Adviser or Contributor to influence the selection process. The Adviser has no reason to believe the Contribution undermined the integrity of the market for advisory services or resulted in a violation of the public trust in the process for awarding contracts.

G. Precedent

The Adviser notes that the Commission has granted exemptions similar to that requested herein with respect to relief from Section 206A of the Act and Rule 206(4)-5(e) in: Davidson Kempner Capital Management LLC, Investment Advisers Act Release Nos. IA-3693 (October 17, 2013) (notice) and IA-3715 (November 13, 2013) (order) (the "Davidson Kempner Application"); Ares Real Estate Management Holdings, LLC, Investment Advisers Act Release Nos. IA-3957 (October 22, 2014) (notice) and IA-3969 (November 18, 2014) (order); Crestview Advisors, LLC, Investment Advisers Act Release Nos. IA-3987 (December 19, 2014) (notice) and IA-3997 (January 14, 2015) (order); T. Rowe Price Associates, Inc., and T. Rowe Price International Ltd., Investment Advisers Release Nos. IA-4046 (March 12, 2015) (notice) and IA-4508 (April 8, 2015) (order); Crescent Capital Group, LP, Investment Advisers Release Nos. IA-4140 (July 14, 2015) (notice) and IA-4172 (August 14, 2015) (order); Starwood Capital Group Management, LLC, Investment Advisers Act Release Nos. IA-4182 (August 26, 2015) (notice) and IA-4203 (September 22, 2015) (order); Fidelity Management & Research Company and FMR Co., Inc., Investment Advisers Release Nos. IA-4220 (October 8, 2015) (notice) and IA-4254 (November 3, 2015)(order); Brookfield Asset Management Private Institutional Capital Adviser US, LLC et. al., Investment Advisers Act Release Nos. IA-4337 (February 22, 2016) (notice) and IA-4355 (March 21, 2016)(order); and Angelo, Gordon & Co., LP, Investment Advisers Release Nos. IA-4418 (June 10, 2016) (notice) and IA-4444 (July 6, 2016) (order) collectively the "Granted Applications"). The facts and representations made in this Application and the Granted Applications are substantially similar. Moreover, there are also some key differences between this Application and the Davidson Kempner Application that further weigh in favor of granting the exemption requested herein. Specifically:

Nature of the Official. In the Davidson Kempner Application, the recipient of the contribution was, at the time of the contribution, the Ohio State Treasurer. One member of each Davidson Kempner Ohio client is appointed by the Ohio State Treasurer. Similarly, on the Contribution Date, the Official was the Governor of Ohio and was responsible for appointing at least one member to the Board of each Client.

Interactions with the Official. In the Davidson Kempner Application, the contributor's contact with the Ohio State Treasurer concerning campaign contributions included a lunch meeting followed by a brief exchange of e-mails, and possibly a phone call confirming the contributor's intent to contribute. In contrast, the Contributor in this Application has never met or spoken or otherwise communicated with the Official. Indeed, the only time the Contributor recalls even seeing the Official in person was at the fundraiser where the Contributor made the Contribution.

Interactions with the Clients. The contributor in the Davidson Kempner Application made substantive presentations to the clients' representatives both before and after the contribution. In contrast, the Contributor has never had any contact with any representative of the Clients or member of a Client's Board regarding any business matters.

Knowledge of the Contribution. In the Davidson Kempner Application, the contributor informed the applicant's executive managing member of his interest in and intention to meet with the Ohio State Treasurer. In contrast, aside from the Contributor himself, no executives, employees or covered associates of the Adviser knew of the Contribution until it was self-reported by the Contributor in February 2017, as a result of the redundant controls PNC used in connection with his proposed promotion.

Client Investments after the Contribution. In the Davidson Kempner Application, a State of Ohio government entity invested in the applicant's fund subsequent to the contribution that triggered the two-year compensation ban. In contrast, all of the Clients have long-standing advisory relationships with the Adviser that greatly predate the Contribution. Furthermore, the Contributor did not solicit the Clients for those investments and will have no contact with the Clients for two years following the Contribution Date. The Contributor also did not supervise anyone who solicited the Clients for the investments.

The Adviser believes that the same policies and considerations that led the Commission to grant relief in the Davidson Kempner Application and the other Granted Applications are present here. In all instances, the imposition of the Rule would result in consequences vastly disproportionate to the mistake that was made. Moreover, the differences between this Application and the Davidson Kempner Application weigh even further in favor of granting the relief requested herein.

V. REQUEST FOR ORDER

The Adviser seeks an order pursuant to Section 206A of the Act and Rule 206(4)-5(e) thereunder, exempting it, to the extent described herein, from the two-year prohibition on compensation required by Rule 206(4)-5(a)(1) under the Act, to permit the Adviser to receive compensation for investment advisory services provided to the Clients within the two-year period following the Contribution identified herein to an official of such government entities by a covered associate of the Adviser.

Conditions. The Adviser agrees that any order of the Commission granting the requested relief will be subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Contributor will be prohibited from soliciting investments from any "government entity" client or prospective client for which the Official is an "official" as defined in Rule 206(4)-5(f) until April 22, 2018.

(2) The Contributor will receive written notification of this condition and will provide a quarterly certification of compliance until April 22, 2018. Copies of the certifications will be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five years, the first two years in an appropriate office of the Adviser, and be available for inspection by the staff of the Commission.

(3) The Adviser will conduct testing reasonably designed to prevent violations of the conditions of this Order and maintain records regarding such testing, which will be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five years, the first two years in an appropriate office of the Adviser, and be available for inspection by the staff of the Commission.

(4) PNC will enhance the Policy by (a) sending more frequent compliance reminders regarding pre-clearance, including sending specific compliance reminder emails during federal elections when a state or local official is a candidate; and (b) amending the quarterly certification to specifically explain that the requirement to report "all" contributions includes contributions to federal candidates who are state or local officials at the time of the contribution (similar to the more specific verbiage in the two-year lookback form).

VI. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Adviser submits that the proposed exemptive relief, conducted subject to the representations set forth above, would be fair and reasonable, would not involve overreaching, and would be consistent with the general purposes of the Act.

VII. PROCEDURAL MATTERS

Pursuant to Rule 0-4 of the rules and regulations under the Act, a form of proposed notice for the order of exemption requested by this Application is set forth as Exhibit C to this Application. In addition, a form of proposed order of exemption requested by this application is set forth as Exhibit D to this Application.

On the basis of the foregoing, the Adviser submits that all the requirements contained in Rule 0-4 under the Act relating to the signing and filing of this Application have been complied with and that the Adviser, who has signed and filed this Application, is fully authorized to do so.

The Adviser requests that the Commission issue an order without a hearing pursuant to Rule 0-5 under the Act.

The Applicant's Representations

1. PNC Capital Advisors, LLC, is registered with the Commission as an investment adviser under the Act. It provides discretionary investment advisory services to a wide variety of investors.

2. Several of the Adviser's clients are Ohio government entities (the "Clients"). The Governor of Ohio has statutory authority to appoint to the boards of the Clients. Due to this appointment authority, the Governor of Ohio is an "official" of the Clients as defined in Rule 206(4)-5 under the Advisers Act (the "Rule").

3. On April 19, 2016, Grant Duffield, a business development officer and dual-hatted employee of PNC Bank, National Association (the "Bank") and the Applicant (the "Contributor"), contributed $1,000 to the federal campaign of Governor John Kasich (the "Official"), who was a candidate in the Republican presidential primary (the "Contribution"). The Applicant represents that the Contributor did not solicit any persons to make contributions to the Official's campaign or coordinate any such contributions, and made no other contributions to the Official. PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. ("PNC") is the parent of both the Bank and the Applicant.

4. The Applicant represents that the Contributor is a long-time Republican, and had been concerned by the unusually acrimonious nature of the 2016 Republican presidential primary. The Contributor's personal friend of many years, and with whom he shares similar political beliefs, invited the Contributor to a fundraiser held in Pittsburgh on April 19, 2016 for the Official's presidential campaign committee. The Official spoke at the fundraiser, and due to his favorable impression of the speech, the Contributor made a spontaneous decision to contribute $1,000 (the "Contribution") to the Official's presidential campaign at the event. The Applicant represents that other than at the event, the Contributor has not met the Official, and in fact, has never spoken with the Official.

5. The Clients' investment advisory business with the Adviser significantly predates the Contribution. The Applicant represents that it has been doing business with Ohio government entities since 1996. The Applicant represents that the Contributor has never been involved with the Applicant's investment advisory business in Ohio, and that until December 2016 he had not solicited or otherwise communicated with any government entity on behalf of the Adviser, nor did anyone whom he supervises. Furthermore, the Contributor neither solicits investment advisory services business in Ohio, nor supervises any person who solicits investment advisory services business in Ohio.

6. The geographic locations where the Contributor solicits business are Pennsylvania, West Virginia, California and Texas. The Contributor has never solicited business in Ohio, whether for the Applicant or the Bank. Although in this role the Contributor had not solicited government entities or served in any other covered associate position, the Adviser listed him as a covered associate in its records maintained under SEC Rule 204-2, and subjected him to its policies for a covered associate such as its political contribution pre-clearance procedures and political contribution quarterly certifications. The Applicant represents that although the
