ORDER DENYING RECONSIDERATION

Redacted (“Claimant”) has submitted correspondence requesting relief with respect to his/her claim for a whistleblower award in connection with the above-referenced covered action. Construing Claimant’s pro se request liberally, we deem it to be a motion for reconsideration with respect to our previous denial of Claimant’s claim in Order Determining Whistleblower Award Claims, Exchange Act Release No. 94,397 (Mar. 11, 2022) (the “Final Order”). We observe that our whistleblower rules do not provide for reconsideration of a final order, and Claimant already received all the process due under those rules when Claimant’s claim was processed to the Final Order. Even if the Commission were to entertain a reconsideration request, we would still exercise our discretion to deny the award claim because Claimant’s present request identifies no new evidence or other developments that could not have been timely raised when Claimant’s claim originally was processed.

Claimant also requests an extension of the statutory 30-day deadline to petition for review of the Final Order. See 15 U.S.C. § 78u-6(f). We lack authority to grant an extension of that deadline.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Claimant’s motion for reconsideration be, and it hereby is, denied.

By the Commission.
