Rules of Cboe EDGA Exchange, Inc.

Rule 13.8.   EDGA Book Feeds

(a) – (h) No change.

(i)   Cboe Timestamping Service. The Cboe Timestamping Service will consist of [two]three optional reports:

(1) Missed Liquidity Report. The Missed Liquidity Report contains historical data from the prior trading day and will be available after the end of the trading day on a T+1 basis. It provides time details for executions of orders that rest on the book where the Member or a Sponsored Participant receiving the report attempted to execute against a resting order within an Exchange-determined period of time (not to exceed 1 millisecond) after receipt of the first attempt to execute against that resting order and within an Exchange-determined period of time (not to exceed 100 microseconds) before receipt of the first attempt to execute against that resting order.

(2) Missed Cancels Report. The Missed Cancels Report contains historical data from the prior trading day and will be available after the end of the trading day on a T+1 basis. It provides liquidity response time details for executions of orders that rest on the book where the Member or a Sponsored Participant receiving the report attempted to cancel a resting order within an Exchange-determined period of time (not to exceed 1 millisecond) after receipt of the first attempt to execute against that resting order and within an Exchange-determined period of time (not to exceed 100 microseconds) before receipt of the first attempt to execute against that resting order.

(3) All Cancels Report. The All Cancels Report contains historical data from the prior trading day and will be available after the end of the trading day on a T+1 basis. It provides all cancel-related messages (including, cancel, cancel rejected, or purge/mass cancel records) sent by the subscriber, irrespective of whether the cancel attempt was successful or associated with a trade event. This report shall not include any trade records.
