RULES, BY-LAWS
AND ORGANIZATION CERTIFICATE
OF
THE DEPOSITORY TRUST COMPANY

RULE 17

ADMISSION TO PREMISES

No Person shall be permitted to enter the premises of the Corporation on behalf of any Participant unless he has first been approved by the Corporation and has been issued such credentials as the Corporation may from time to time prescribe and such credentials shall not have been cancelled or revoked. Such credentials must be shown on demand and to gain entry to the Corporation's premises, must be prominently displayed while on said premises and may limit the portions of the premises to which access is permitted thereunder. Any credentials issued pursuant to this Rule may be revoked at any time by the Corporation, in its sole discretion, and prompt notice of such revocation shall be given to the employer of the Person whose credentials have been so revoked.

Every Person to whom credentials have been or may hereafter be issued by the Corporation (which credentials have not been revoked) authorizing such Person to have access, during the hours when deliveries are to be received, to the portion of the Corporation's premises in which deliveries are received, shall be deemed to have been authorized by such Participant to receive and deliver Securities or other items on behalf of such Participant.

Each Participant shall, if any Person in its employ to whom any credentials have been issued pursuant to this Rule or to whom a power of attorney or other authorization has been given to act for it in connection with the business of the Corporation shall for any reason cease to be so employed, give to the Corporation immediate notice of such termination of employment and, if any such power of attorney or other authorization is otherwise revoked or cancelled, likewise give to the Corporation immediate notice of such revocation or cancellation. All credentials issued pursuant to this Rule shall be immediately surrendered to the Corporation, accompanied by a written statement specifying that they are being surrendered pursuant to this Rule, upon their revocation by the Corporation or by the employer or upon the termination of the employment of the holder thereof.

Unless revoked by the Corporation, all credentials, authorizations and powers of attorney issued pursuant to this Rule or in connection with the work of the Corporation shall remain in full force and effect until the Corporation shall have received written notice of the revocation thereof or of the termination of the holder's employment.

~~Necessary credentials for entering the Corporation's premises shall be provided as specified in the Procedures.~~

DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

The Corporation may discipline a Participant or Pledgee for a violation of these Rules or the Procedures or for errors, delays or other conduct detrimental to the operations of the Corporation, other Participants or Pledgees, or for not providing adequate facilities for its business with the Corporation by imposing any of the following sanctions: expulsion; suspension; limitation of activities, functions and operations; fine; censure; and any other fitting sanction. Fines shall be payable in the manner and at such time as determined by the Corporation from time to time. In addition, in the event that a Participant shall violate these Rules, the Procedures or any of its agreements with the Corporation, the Corporation may require such cash or other deposit by a Participant to the Participants Fund or otherwise as shall be necessary or appropriate to protect the Corporation, other Participants or Pledgees, in the circumstances.

In the event that a Participant shall fail to settle, the Corporation is authorized by these Rules and the Procedures to charge interest to that Participant and/or other Participants in substantially the same amounts as the Corporation shall have paid by reason of such event; the charge of such interest shall not be considered a disciplinary sanction subject to this Rule or Rule 22.

When the Corporation proposes to impose a sanction it shall send the Participant or Pledgee a written statement describing the reason for the proposed sanction and notifying the Participant or Pledgee that it has an opportunity to respond pursuant to Rule 22. The sanction proposed may be imposed by the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Secretary unless, within five Business Days after notification of such proposed sanction, the Participant or Pledgee provides notice of its desire to contest the sanction, as provided in Rule 22. The right to contest a sanction before it is imposed pursuant to Rule 22 shall not apply to a case where the Corporation summarily suspends and closes the accounts of a Participant or Pledgee pursuant to the Exchange Act.

Note: Section 17A(b)(5)(C) of the Exchange Act permits the Corporation summarily to suspend and close the Accounts of a Participant. That section also provides that a Participant so summarily suspended shall be promptly afforded an opportunity for hearing by the Corporation and that the appropriate regulatory agency for the Participant may stay any such summary suspension. Section 19 of the Exchange Act contains provisions relevant to a Participant's remedies in the event of its summary suspension.
