Rules of NYSE Arca, Inc.

Rule 6.69. Reporting Duties

(a) - (e) No change.

(f) As provided under Commentary .02 to Rule 6.77, the agreement by the parties to a trade to nullify the trade must be reported to the Exchange by at least one party thereto.

Rule 6.77. Contract Made on Acceptance of Bid or Offer

All bids or offers made and accepted in accordance with the Rules shall constitute binding contracts, subject to applicable requirements of the Bylaws and Rules of the Exchange and the Rules of the Options Clearing Corporation.

Commentary:

.01 No change.

.02 A trade may be nullified if all parties to the trade agree to the nullification. When all parties to a trade have agreed to a trade nullification, one party must promptly notify the Exchange for dissemination of cancellation information to the Options Price Reporting Authority.
