Rule 7.5. Trading Units

The unit of trading in stocks is 1 share. A "round lot" is 100 shares, unless [specified by the primary listing market]required by the definition of "round lot" under Regulation NMS to be fewer than 100 shares. Any amount less than a round lot will constitute an "odd lot," and any amount greater than a round lot that is not a multiple of a round lot will constitute a "mixed lot."
