

The Exchange: Discussions on Women's Financial Literacy

Episode No. 1: Introduction

Hello and welcome to the introductory episode of The Exchange: Discussions on Women's Financial Literacy, from the Fort Worth Regional Office of U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, commonly known as the SEC. My name is Jill Harris, and I am an attorney with the Division of Enforcement here in the Fort Worth Regional Office, and I am going to be your host throughout this series.

One of the SEC's most important missions is to protect investors. The goal of The Exchange conversation series is to discuss women's financial literacy and address the specific issues and challenges women face as investors. I will be joined by other amazing women here at the Commission, and we will discuss various subjects, including investment basics, caretaking, and financial literacy gap.

You can find The Exchange conversations on the Commission's YouTube and as always, the views I express throughout this series are my own, and do not necessarily reflect those of the Commission, the Commissioners, or other members of the Staff.
