What Investment services and advice can you provide me?

- B&B: Broker-Dealer Services - Brokerage Accounts:
 - Updated to disclose “all buys and sales of securities are fulfilled directly at the mutual fund, annuity, and insurance companies.”
 - Clarified that “B&B does not offer discretionary accounts and thus any decisions regarding which investments to buy and sell and related issues must be approved by you.”
- Section: Fees, Costs, and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay?

- B&B: Broker-Dealer Services - Brokerage Accounts:

- Added: “B&B benefits from commissions and ongoing fees described above. Therefore B&B may have an incentive to encourage you to increase your investment size, add additional assets, and move money between mutual fund and annuity companies.”
- BBFA: Investment Advisor Services:
 - Updated: “BBFA fees vary depending on the service you choose. If you choose integrated portfolio management and financial planning services, you will pay an annual advisory fee on all assets under management of no more than 0.90%.

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations as my broker-dealer or when acting as my investment advisor? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

- B&B: Broker-Dealer Services - Brokerage Accounts:
 - Removed: “B&B acts in the best interest of clients and does not place B&B’s interests ahead of clients when recommending an investment or investment strategy involving securities. When B&B provides any service to you, B&B must treat you fairly and comply with specific obligations under federal and state law.
When B&B provide recommendations to clients, B&B must eliminate any conflicts of interest or fully disclose them so that clients can make fully informed financial decisions.
B&B benefits from our recommendations to you.
B&B does not offer any sales contests nor provide special incentives or bonuses for the sale of any investment products. Nor do we sell any proprietary products. ”
- BBFA: Investment Advisor Services:
 - Removed: “BBFA is held to a fiduciary standard that covers our entire investment advisory relationship with you. As fiduciaries, BBFA has an overarching duty to act in your best interest with care and loyalty. BBFA will always place your interest ahead of our own. BBFA is required to make full and fair disclosures of any conflict of interest and ensure these conflicts do not taint our advice so you can make fully informed financial decisions.
BBFA benefits by the services provided to you.
BBFA and its investment advisor representatives receive the advisory fees as described above. No other compensation is received by BBFA or the investment advisor representative for our services.”
- Additional Changes:
 - Language: Replaced “client” throughout to directly address you, the client.
 - Formatting: Made minor formatting changes for clarity and emphasis.
 - Hyperlinks: Updated hyperlinks in the digital version.

We are committed to keeping our clients informed and will continue to update our Form CRS as necessary. Additional copies of our updated Form CRS can be found on our firm websites or you may request a copy from your representative or other team member.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?
B&B offers broker-dealer services, investing in a broad variety of primarily stock and bond based mutual funds, annuities, and other insurance products; all buys and sells of securities are fulfilled directly at the mutual fund, annuity, and insurance companies. We specialize in providing objective and professional investment recommendations with personalized service. B&B’s recommendations are aimed at providing financial security for retirement, educational funding, and other long-term financial objectives. B&B’s investment recommendations will depend upon your unique situation including your age, other investments, financial situation and needs, tax status, financial objectives, investment experience, investment time horizon, liquidity needs, and risk tolerance. B&B’s recommendations are limited to a specific selection of investments and annuity products from sponsors (for example mutual fund and annuity companies) with whom we have selling agreements, and other firms could provide a different range of investment choices, which might have different costs. B&B has no minimum account funding or maintenance size, however the mutual fund and annuity companies we	BBFA primarily offers integrated portfolio management and financial planning services to you. If you choose this service, you will work closely with an investment advisor representative to develop both a financial and investment plan. BBFA implements elements of the financial plan by utilizing investment portfolios that may consist of mutual funds, exchange traded funds, stocks, bonds, and other financial instruments. BBFA limits the types of investments that are recommended since not every type of investment vehicle is needed to create an appropriate portfolio. The Investment Policy Statement is developed for you to document your current financial situation including factors such as: current and anticipated retirement income levels, tax rates, investment experience, relevant time horizons, and overall risk tolerance. The Investment Policy Statement is used by the investment advisor representative to develop a specific financial plan designed to help achieve your goals and objectives. BBFA primarily offer discretionary advisory services (where BBFA makes the decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments). However, on a limited basis BBFA will offer

recommended may have a minimum account funding and maintenance size. B&B does not offer discretionary accounts and thus any decisions regarding which investments to buy and sell and related issues must be approved by you. B&B does not monitor your investments. This means B&B does not offer periodic evaluations of your positions, rather, B&B acts in your best interest at the time we make a recommendation. B&B encourages you to meet with your registered representative at least annually to discuss your investments. For more information about our services please consult your registered representative or see our Regulation Best Interest Disclosure found on B&B's website at blakeslee-blakeslee.com.	non-discretionary services (where you make the ultimate decision on securities to buy and sell). BBFA has no minimum account funding or maintenance size, but we may close accounts that are unfunded or dormant. BBFA is required to monitor your portfolio, investment strategy, and investments on an ongoing basis. Investment portfolios are monitored and reviewed on a quarterly basis. This is part of our standard services. Please also see our Form ADV Part 2A at mybbfa.com, specifically Items 4 & 7 for more detailed information and information about our additional services.

What do these qualifications mean?
Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct
What fees will I pay?
For mutual funds, you pay up-front sales charges (also known as commissions) to the investment company when new/additional investments are made. The sales charge is based upon the specific transaction and not on the value of the account. The sales charge is reduced, however, when you reach certain breakpoints, which are based upon the amount already invested at a mutual fund company plus new monies added to that same company. The sales charge on new monies invested can range from 0% (generally for accounts valued at more than $1,000,000 within the same mutual fund company) up to 5.75% (generally for accounts valued at less than $25,000). A portion of the sales charges are paid to B&B. Mutual funds also have ongoing internal operating expenses that reduce the value of an investment over time. These annual costs are covered through fees that typically range from 0.35 to 0.95 percent but can be higher for specialized or global funds. A portion of these expenses (typically ¼ of one percent per year) which is paid to B&B are known as “trails.” Some annuities and mutual fund share classes (e.g., Class C) do not impose an up-front sales charge but the internal operating expenses may be significantly higher. In such cases, holding periods and surrender penalties may apply. B&B benefits from commissions and ongoing fees described above. Therefore B&B may have an incentive to encourage you to increase your investment account size, add additional assets, and move money between mutual fund and annuity companies.	BBFA fees vary depending on the service you choose. If you choose integrated portfolio management and financial planning services, you will pay an annual advisory fee on all assets under management of no more than 0.90%. This fee may be reduced when you reach certain breakpoints, details regarding this fee structure are provide in our Form ADV Part 2A under Item 5.A.1, which can be found on BBFA's website, mybbfa.com. Additionally, the amount of assets in your account affects our advisory fee; the more assets you have in your advisory account, the more you will pay us and thus we have an incentive to increase those assets to increase our fee. Advisory fees are charged quarterly in arrears, while hourly financial planning fees are typically charged half in advance and the remainder once the plan is complete. You pay our fees even if you do not have any transactions and the advisory fee paid to us generally does not vary based on the type of investments selected. Please also see Items 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8 of our Form ADV Part 2A, located on BBFA's website at mybbfa.com. BBFA offers a wrap fee program. A wrap fee program is an investment program for which the investor pays one stated fee that includes advisor fees, custodial and trading costs, and other administrative fees. Third Party Costs: Some investments (e.g., mutual funds) impose additional fees (e.g., transactional fees and product-level fees) that reduce the value of your investment over time. You will also pay fees to a custodian that will hold your assets. For the wrap fee program, you will not typically pay additional

Mutual fund and insurance companies may also impose account maintenance fees, which typically range from $10 to $35 per year. For annuities and other insurance products a holding period and surrender charges may apply if funds are withdrawn prematurely. The commissions and fees described above are charged directly by the mutual fund and insurance companies. B&B does not impose any additional costs for services. The commissions and fees do not vary between clients and are not negotiable. You will pay fees and cost whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and cost you are paying. More information about fees, risk, expenses, and conflicts can be found in product prospectuses you receive at or before the completion of a transaction, and in our Regulation Best Interest Disclosure found on B&B's website at blakeslee-bakeslee.com.	transaction fees and thus our advisory fee is higher than if you paid transaction fees separately. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Please also see our Form ADV Part 2A on BBFA's website at mybbfa.com for additional details. BBFA and their investment advisor representatives benefit from the advisory services BBFA provides to you because of the advisory fees BBFA receives from you. This compensation may vary based on different factors, such as those listed above in this Item and may be negotiable. Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help me understand how these fees and cost might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?
What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations as my broker-dealer or when acting as my investment advisor? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?
When we provide you with a recommendation, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the recommendations we provide you. Here is an example to help you understand what this means: Mutual fund and annuity companies pay us a portion of the up-front sales charge or commission on new investments. We also receive ongoing service fees (12b-1) also known as trail commissions. The sales charge or commissions associated with new investments, and service fees create an incentive for us to recommend or select products that pay us fees and/or commissions over those that do not, or that pay us lower fees or commissions. B&B maintains procedures to mitigate these conflicts. For more information about B&B's services please consult your registered representative or see our Regulation Best Interest Disclosure found on B&B's website at blakeslee-blakeslee.com.	When we act as your investment advisor, we must act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours.
