Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay?
Asset-Based Fees: Our asset-based fee for wealth management ranges from 0.35% to 0.90% annually based on a tiered schedule or a flat rate. This fee is collected on a quarterly basis and calculated as a percentage of the value of the cash and investments in your account[s] that we manage. This presents a conflict of interest as we are financially incentivized to encourage you to place more assets in your advisory account as you will ultimately pay more in advisory fees.
Fixed Fees: Our fixed project-based fees for financial planning and consulting fees range from $3,000 to $20,000. We collect fees in two separate installments. Fixed fees are negotiable based on the nature and complexity of the services to be provided and the overall relationship with us. We provide you with an estimate of the total cost prior to engaging us for these services. If you engage us for investment management services, we may offset all or a portion of our fixed fees for financial planning and consulting services.

Other Fees & Costs: In addition to our advisory fee, you will also be responsible for third party manager and/or platform fees, custody fees, account administrative fees, fees and expenses related to mutual funds and exchange-traded funds and applicable securities transaction fees.

Additional Information: You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For more detailed information on our fees, please see Item 5 – Fees and Compensation of our Form ADV Part 2A available via our firm's Investment Adviser Public Disclosure Page.

Conversation Starters: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser?
How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interests ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here is an example to help you understand what this means.

Some of our financial professionals are licensed as insurance agents. In addition to our services, when deemed to be in your best interest, your financial professional will offer you insurance products in their separate capacity as an insurance agent. In such instances our financial professionals will earn commission-based compensation for the implementation of an insurance product. Therefore, there is a financial incentive to recommend that you implement insurance through our financial professionals.

Additional Information: For more detailed information, please see Item 10 – Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations, Item 12 – Brokerage Practices and Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation of our Form ADV Part 2A available via our firm's Investment Adviser Public Disclosure Page.

Conversation Starters: How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our primary financial professionals are the Principals of our firm. The Principals of our firm receive no salary or bonus as compensation. Their compensation is based on the net profits of the organization which are generated from revenue associated with our advisory service fees. Our Non-principal financial professionals receive both a salary and bonus as compensation. Their bonus, in part, may be based on the net profits of the organization which are generated from revenue associated with our advisory service fees. As such, given our principal and non-principal compensation likely increases when assets under management increases, we have an incentive to grow the asset size in client relationships and/or solicit new client relationships, which may take time away from the day-to-day servicing of our current clients.
