Item 4: Advisory Business

A. Description of the Advisory Firm

Financial Planning Associates, LLC is a Limited Liability Company organized in the state of New York. This firm was formed in December of 2011, and the principal owner is Antonio A. Taddeo.

B. Types of Advisory Services

Financial Planning Associates, LLC (hereinafter "FPA") offers the following services to advisory clients:

Investment Supervisory Services

FPA offers ongoing portfolio management services based on each client's individual goals, objectives, time horizon, and risk tolerance. FPA creates an Investment Policy Statement for each client, which outlines the client's current situation (income, tax levels, and risk tolerance levels) and then constructs a plan (the Investment Policy Statement) to aid in the selection of a portfolio that matches each client's specific situation. Investment Supervisory Services include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Investment strategy
- Asset allocation
- Risk tolerance
- Personal investment policy
- Asset selection
- Regular portfolio monitoring

FPA evaluates the current investments of each client with respect to their risk tolerance levels and time horizon. FPA will request discretionary authority from clients in order to select securities and execute transactions without permission from the client prior to each transaction. Risk tolerance levels are documented in the Investment Policy Statement, which is given to each client.

Selection of Other Advisors

FPA may direct clients to third party money managers. FPA will be compensated via a fee share from the advisors to which it directs those clients. The fees shared will not exceed any limit imposed by any regulatory agency. Before selecting other advisors for clients, FPA will always ensure those other advisors are properly licensed or registered as an investment advisor. The third party manager will be determined based on the client's investment goals, time horizon, risk tolerance, and investment objectives. The shared fee will not result in the client paying a higher management fee.

Financial Planning

Financial plans and financial planning services may include but are not limited to: investment planning, life insurance; tax concerns; retirement planning; college planning; and debt/credit planning. These services are based on hourly and fixed fees, and the final fee structure is documented in Exhibit II of the Financial Planning Agreement.

Services Limited to Specific Types of Investments

FPA generally limits its investment advice and/or money management to mutual funds, equities, bonds, fixed income, debt securities, ETFs, real estate, REITs, insurance products, including annuities and government securities. FPA may use other securities as well to help diversify a portfolio when applicable.

C. Client Tailored Services and Client Imposed Restrictions

FPA offers the same suite of services to all of its clients. However, specific client financial plans and their implementation are dependent upon the client's financial planning questionnaire which outlines each client's current situation (income, tax levels, and risk tolerance levels) and is used to construct a client specific plan to aid in the selection of a portfolio that matches restrictions, needs, and targets.

Clients may not impose restrictions on investing in certain securities or types of securities in accordance with their values or beliefs.

D. Wrap Fee Programs

A wrap fee program is an investment program where the investor pays one stated fee that includes management fees, transaction costs, fund expenses, and any other administrative fees. FPA has discretionary authority to select third party advisers, where client assets may be included in the third-party adviser's wrap fee program. Under such arrangement, FPA acts as neither the sponsor nor the portfolio manager.

E. Amounts Under Management

FPA has the following assets under management:

Discretionary Amounts:	Non-discretionary Amounts:	Date Calculated:
$60,370,218	$0	12/31/2023

Item 5: Fees and Compensation

A. Fee Schedule

Investment Supervisory Services Fees

Total Assets Under Management	Annual Fee
$1 - $500,000	1.25%
$500,001 - $1,500,000	1.00%
$1,500,001 - $3,000,000	0.75%
Above $3,000,000	Negotiable

These fees are negotiable depending upon the needs of the client and the complexity of the situation, and the final fee schedule is attached as Exhibit II of the Investment Advisory Contract. Depending on the FPA representative the account is with, fees are paid quarterly in advance or in arrears, and clients may terminate their contracts with thirty days written notice.

Refunds are given on a prorated basis based on the number of days remaining in a quarter at the point of termination. Fees that are collected in advance will be refunded based on the prorated amount of work completed up to the day of termination within the quarter terminated. The fee refunded will be the balance of the fees collected in advance minus the daily rate* times the number of days in the quarter up to and including the day of termination. (*The daily rate is calculated by dividing the quarterly AUM fee by the number of days in the termination quarter). Clients may terminate their contracts without penalty, for a full refund, within 5 business days of signing the advisory contract.

Advisory fees are withdrawn directly from the client's accounts with the client's written authorization. In cases where Advisor fees are directly deducted, Advisor is required to a.) Obtain client authorization, b.) Disclose that the custodian will send quarterly invoices to the client wherein Advisor fees are itemized.

Selection of Other Advisors Fees

FPA will direct clients to third party money managers. FPA will be compensated via a fee share from the advisors to which it directs those clients. This relationship will be disclosed in each contract between FPA and each third party advisor. The fees shared will not exceed any limit imposed by any regulatory agency. The fee schedule is as follows:

AUM	FPA's Fee	Third Party's Fee	Total Fee
<$250,000	1.00%	0.45% - 1.00%	1.45% - 2.00%
$250,000 - 5$500,000	1.00%	0.40% - 0.80%	1.40% - 1.80%

$2,000,000 - $3,000,000	0.75%	0.20% - 0.70%	0.95% - 1.45%
$3,000,000 - $5,000,000	Negotiable	0.20% - 0.70%	Negotiable
Above $5,000,000	Negotiable	0.20% - 0.60%	Negotiable

These fees are negotiable depending upon the needs of the client and the complexity of the situation. Fees are paid quarterly in advance, and clients may terminate their contracts with ten days' written notice. Refunds are given on a prorated basis, based on the number of days remaining in a quarter at the point of termination.

Currently, FPA directs clients to third party money managers Assetmark, Inc. (CRD# 109018) and the Pacific Financial Group (CRD# 105203).

E. Outside Compensation For the Sale of Securities to Clients

Neither FPA nor its supervised persons accept any compensation for the sale of securities or other investment products, including asset-based sales charges or service fees from the sale of mutual funds.

Item 6: Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

FPA does not accept performance-based fees or other fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of a client's assets.

Item 7: Types of Clients

FPA generally provides investment advice and/or management supervisory services to the following types of clients:

- ❖ Individuals
- ❖ High-Net-Worth Individuals
- ❖ Small Business

Minimum Account Size

There is an account minimum of $250,000, which may be waived by the investment advisor, based on the needs of the client and the complexity of the situation.

Item 8: Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies, and Risk of Investment Loss

A. Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies

Methods of Analysis

FPA's methods of analysis include fundamental analysis and technical analysis.

Fundamental analysis involves the analysis of financial statements, the general financial health of companies, and/or the analysis of management or competitive advantages.

Technical analysis involves the analysis of past market data; primarily price and volume.

Investment Strategies

FPA uses long term trading and short term trading.

Investing in securities involves a risk of loss that you, as a client, should be prepared to bear.

B. Material Risks Involved

Methods of Analysis

Fundamental analysis concentrates on factors that determine a company's value and expected future earnings. This strategy would normally encourage equity purchases in stocks that are undervalued or priced below their perceived value. The risk assumed is that the market will fail to reach expectations of perceived value.

Technical analysis attempts to predict a future stock price or direction based on market trends. The assumption is that the market follows discernible patterns, and if these patterns can be identified, a prediction can be made. The risk is that markets do not always follow patterns, and relying solely on this method may not work in the long term.

Investment Strategies

Long term trading is designed to capture market rates of both return and risk. Frequent trading, when done, can affect investment performance, particularly through increased brokerage and other transaction costs and taxes.

Short term trading generally holds greater risk, and clients should be aware that there is a material risk of loss using any of those strategies.

Investing in securities involves a risk of loss that you, as a client, should be prepared to bear.

C. Risks of Specific Securities Utilized

FPA generally seeks investment strategies that do not involve significant or unusual risk beyond that of the general domestic and/or international equity markets. However, it may utilize short-term trading, which generally holds a greater risk of capital loss, and clients should be aware that there is a material risk of loss using any of those strategies.

Mutual Funds: Investing in mutual funds carries the risk of capital loss. Mutual funds are not guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other government agency. You can lose money investing in mutual funds. All mutual funds have costs that lower investment returns. They can be of bond "fixed income" nature (lower risk) or stock "equity" nature (mentioned above).

Equity investment generally refers to buying shares of stocks by an individual or firm in return for receiving a future payment of dividends and capital gains if the value of the stock increases. There is an innate risk involved when purchasing a stock that it may decrease in value and the investment may incur a loss.

Treasury Inflation Protected/Inflation Linked Bonds: The Risk of default on these bonds is dependent upon the U.S. Treasury defaulting (extremely unlikely); however, they carry a potential risk of losing share price value, albeit rather minimal.

Fixed Income is an investment that guarantees fixed periodic payments in the future that may involve economic risks such as inflationary risk, interest rate risk, default risk, repayment of principal risk, etc.

Debt securities carry risks such as the possibility of default on the principal, fluctuation in interest rates, and counterparties being unable to meet obligations.

Stocks & Exchange Traded Funds (ETF): Investing in stocks & ETFs carries the risk of capital loss (sometimes up to a 100% loss in the case of a stock holding bankruptcy). Investments in these securities are not guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other government agency.

Real Estate funds face several kinds of risks that are inherent in this sector of the market. Liquidity risk, market risk, and interest rate risk are just some of the factors that can influence the gain or loss that is passed on to the investor. Liquidity and market risk tend to have a greater effect on funds that are more growth-oriented, as the sale of appreciated properties depends upon market demand. Conversely, interest rate risk impacts the amount of dividend income that income-oriented funds pay.

REITs have specific risks, including valuation due to cash flows, dividends paid in stock rather than cash, and the payment of debt resulting in dilution of shares.

Long term trading is designed to capture market rates of both return and risk. Due to its nature, the long-term investment strategy can expose clients to various other types of risks that will typically surface at various intervals during the time the client owns the investments. These risks include but are not limited to inflation (purchasing power) risk, interest rate risk, economic risk, market risk, and political/regulatory risk.

Short term trading risks include liquidity, economic stability, and inflation.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities involves a risk of loss that you, as a client, should be prepared to bear.

Antonio A. Taddeo is a licensed insurance agent and the owner/general partner of a rental property T&J Investment Company LLC. Financial Planning Associates, LLC always acts in the client's best interest, including the sale of commissionable insurance products to advisory clients. Clients are in no way required to utilize the services of any representative of Financial Planning Associates, LLC in the individual's outside capacities.

D. Selection of Other Advisors or Managers and How This Adviser is Compensated for Those Selections

FPA will direct clients to third party money managers. FPA will be compensated via a fee share from the advisors to which it directs those clients. This relationship will be disclosed in each contract between FPA and each third party advisor. FPA will always act in the client's best interests, including when determining which third party manager to recommend to clients. FPA will ensure that all recommended advisors or managers are licensed or notice filed in the states in which FPA is recommending them to clients. Currently, FPA directs clients to third party money managers Assetmark, Inc. (CRD#109018) and The Pacific Financial Group (CRD#105203).

Item 11: Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Code of Ethics

We have a written Code of Ethics that covers the following areas: Prohibited Purchases and Sales, Insider Trading, Personal Securities Transactions, Exempted Transactions, Prohibited Activities, Conflicts of Interest, Gifts, and Entertainment, Confidentiality, Service on a Board of Directors, Compliance Procedures, Compliance with Laws and Regulations, Procedures and Reporting, Certification of Compliance, Reporting Violations, Compliance Officer Duties, Training and Education, Recordkeeping, Annual Review, and Sanctions. Our Code of Ethics is available free upon request to any client or prospective client.

B. Recommendations Involving Material Financial Interests

FPA does not recommend that clients buy or sell any security in which a related person to FPA or FPA has a material financial interest.

C. Investing Personal Money in the Same Securities as Clients

From time to time, representatives of FPA may buy or sell securities for themselves that they also recommend to clients. This may provide an opportunity for representatives of FPA to buy or sell the same securities before or after recommending the same securities to clients. FPA will always document any transactions that could be construed as conflicts of interest.

D. Trading Securities At/Around the Same Time as Clients' Securities

Please see Item 11C above.

Item 12: Brokerage Practices

A. Factors Used to Select Custodians and/or Broker/Dealers

The Custodians, Schwab Institutional, a division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc., (CRD# 5393), AssetMark (CRD# 109018), and The Pacific Financial Group (CRD#105203), were chosen based on their relatively low transaction fees and access to mutual funds and ETFs. FPA will never charge a premium or commission on transactions, beyond the actual cost imposed by Custodian.

1. Research and Other Soft-Dollar Benefits

FPA does not have any traditional "soft dollar" arrangements in place, in which FPA agrees to direct a certain amount of commission dollars to a specific broker-dealer in exchange for research or other services. FPA does receive research, products, or other services from its custodians or another third-party in connection with client securities transactions. There is no minimum client number or dollar number that FPA must meet in order to receive these services from these custodians. There is no incentive for FPA to direct clients to these particular custodians over other custodians who offer the same services. However, because FPA does not have to produce or pay for services or products it has an incentive to choose a custodian that provides those services based on its interests rather than the clients' interests. The first consideration when recommending custodians or broker-dealers to clients is best execution. FPA always acts in the best interest of the client.

2. Brokerage for Client Referrals

FPA receives no referrals from a broker-dealer or third party in exchange for using that broker-dealer or third party.

3. Clients Directing Which Broker/Dealer/Custodian to Use

FPA will not allow clients to direct FPA to use a specific broker-dealer to execute transactions. Clients must use FPA recommended custodian (broker-dealer). Not all investment advisers require their clients to direct brokerage.

B. Aggregating (Block) Trading for Multiple Client Accounts

FPA maintains the ability to block trade purchases across accounts. Block trading may benefit a large group of clients by providing FPA the ability to purchase larger blocks resulting in smaller transaction costs to the client. Declining to block trade can cause more expensive trades for clients.

Item 13: Reviews of Accounts

A. Frequency and Nature of Periodic Reviews and Who Makes Those Reviews

Client accounts are reviewed at least annually by each account representative. All FPA representatives are instructed to review clients' accounts with regard to their investment policies and risk tolerance levels.

All financial planning accounts are reviewed upon financial plan creation and plan delivery by each FPA representative. There is only one level of review, and that is the total review conducted to create the financial plan.

B. Factors That Will Trigger a Non-Periodic Review of Client Accounts

Reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events, or by changes in the client's financial situations (such as retirement, termination of employment, physical move, or inheritance).

C. Content and Frequency of Regular Reports Provided to Clients

Each client will receive at least quarterly from the custodian a written report that details the client's account, including assets held and asset value which will come from the custodian.

Clients are provided with a one-time financial plan concerning their financial situation. After the presentation of the plan, clients may request additional plans or reports for a fee.

Item 14: Client Referrals and Other Compensation

A. Economic Benefits Provided by Third Parties for Advice Rendered to Clients (Includes Sales Awards or Other Prizes)

FPA does not receive any economic benefit, directly or indirectly, from any third party for advice rendered to FPA clients.

B. Compensation to Non-Advisory Personnel for Client Referrals

FPA does not directly or indirectly compensate anyone who is not advisory personnel for client referrals.

Item 15: Custody

FPA, with client written authority, has limited custody of client's assets through direct fee deduction of FPA's Fees only. If the client chooses to be billed directly by Schwab Institutional, a division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc., (CRD# 5393), AssetMark (CRD# 109018) or The Pacific Financial Group (CRD#105203), FPA would have constructive custody over that account and must have written authorization from the client to do so. Clients will receive all required account statements and billing invoices that are required in each jurisdiction, and they should carefully review those statements for accuracy.

Item 16: Investment Discretion

For those client accounts where FPA provides ongoing supervision, the client has given FPA written discretionary authority over the client's accounts with respect to securities to be bought or sold and the amount of securities to be bought or sold. This relationship is fully disclosed to the client before any advisory relationship has commenced. The client provides FPA discretionary authority via a limited power of attorney in the Investment Advisory Contract and in the contract between the client and the custodian.

Item 17: Voting Client Securities (Proxy Voting)

FPA will not ask for nor accept voting authority for client securities. Clients will receive proxies directly from the issuer of the security or the custodian. Clients should direct all proxy questions to the issuer of the security.

Item 18: Financial Information

A. Balance Sheet

FPA does not require nor solicit prepayment of more than $1,200 in fees per client, six months or more in advance, and therefore does not need to include a balance sheet with this brochure.

B. Financial Conditions Reasonably Likely to Impair Ability to Meet Contractual Commitments to Clients

Neither FPA nor its management has any financial conditions that are likely to reasonably impair our ability to meet contractual commitments to clients.

C. Bankruptcy Petitions in Previous Ten Years

FPA has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition in the last ten years.
