<sup>1</sup> The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter is a globally respected, graduate-level investment credential established in 1962 and awarded by CFA Institute — the largest global association of investment professionals. There are currently more than 142,000 CFA charter holders working in 159 countries. To earn the CFA charter, candidates must: 1) pass three sequential, six-hour examinations; 2) have at least four years of qualified professional investment experience; 3) join CFA Institute as members; and 4) commit to abide by, and annually reaffirm, their adherence to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.

<sup>2</sup> Since March 1, 2017, GAMCO serves as a subadvisor to Teton, and Mr. Gabelli serves as portfolio manager under that sub-advisory agreement. Teton is an asset management company which was spun-off from GAMCO in March 2009.

Item 3. DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

None

Item 4. OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Mario J. Gabelli serves as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of GAMCO Investors, Inc. (“GBL”), GAMCO’s parent corporation and serves as an officer, director, chief investment officer/portfolio manager of various other entities that are listed above. Mr. Gabelli is the majority shareholder of Morgan Group Holdings Co. (“Morgan Group”) through his ownership of Associated Capital, Inc. These arrangements may represent a conflict of interest because they provide an economic incentive for the supervised persons to use Morgan Group, in lieu of other brokers-dealers, to effect client securities transactions. These conflicts of interest are disclosed to clients, and GAMCO obtains client consent. To the extent that Mr. Gabelli and other supervised persons are engaged in other business activities, they may not devote all their time and attention to the management of client accounts.

Item 5.            ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

The above referenced supervised person may receive a portion of GAMCO's advisory fee for serving as a portfolio manager and/or relationship manager. GAMCO typically pays out up to 40% of the revenues or net operating contribution to the portfolio managers and marketing staff who introduce, service or generate such business, with payments involving the separate accounts being typically based on revenues and payments involving the mutual funds being typically based on net operating contribution.

Item 6            SUPERVISION

Mario J. Gabelli serves as the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Investment Officer of Value Portfolios. Howard Ward is Director of Growth Products and oversees those GAMCO accounts that are managed in a growth strategy. As noted in Item 2 above for each supervised person, each of them also performs services for one or more affiliated investment advisers. Mr. Gabelli is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of GBL, the parent company of GAMCO, and the investment advice Mr. Gabelli provides to clients is not subject to supervision. The activities of all supervised persons, including Mr. Gabelli, are subject to GAMCO's internal controls and compliance policies and procedures. In addition, certain persons associated with GAMCO review client accounts and trading to determine they are consistent with the strategy selected by the client, any investment guidelines, best execution and other applicable criteria. The remaining supervised persons report directly to and are supervised by Mr. Gabelli as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of GAMCO's parent company, GBL, on a continuous basis. Mr. Gabelli can be reached at the telephone number on the cover of the Part 2B Supplement.
