Item 2 Educational Background and Business Experience

Tim D. Hemingway, born in 1954, earned a B.A in Industrial Management from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 1977, a M.Div. from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in 1990, and a Masters in Science from Columbus State University in 2007. He has been affiliated with Smith, Brown & Groover, Inc. since 2005.

Mr. Hemingway is also self-employed as a Licensed Professional Counselor doing business as The Family Place and is associated with Crossroads Christian Counseling Center.

Mr. Hemingway currently holds the following FINRA securities professional licenses:

Series 7 – General Securities Representative

Series 63 – Securities Agent

Series 65 – Investment Adviser Representative

To maintain his Series 7 license, Mr. Hemingway completes an annual firm element in addition to 24 hours of continuing education that includes 3 hours of ethics training every 3 years.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose certain material facts about its associated personnel regarding any legal or disciplinary events, including criminal or civil actions in a domestic, foreign or military court, or any proceeding before a state, federal or foreign regulatory agency, self-regulatory organization, or suspension or sanction by a professional association for violation of its conduct rules, that would be material to your evaluation of each officer or a supervised person providing investment advice. There are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Tim D. Hemingway in the past ten years.

Mr. Hemingway left his law practice in 1988 to enter full-time ministry. There was, and still remains, no procedure in place to voluntarily surrender a law license, therefore, he has allowed his license to lapse and ultimately be revoked for failure to maintain continuing education requirements and pay licensing fees.

We encourage an independent review of Mr. Hemingway's background on the Investment Advisor Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching his CRD# 5013252.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

Principal executives, managers, and investment advisor representatives are required to disclose outside business activities that account for a significant portion of their time or income, or that may present a conflict of interest with their advisory activities.

Mr. Hemingway sells commission-based products including insurance and annuities as a registered representative of Smith, Brown, & Groover, Inc. (CRD# 1329), a FINRA-registered broker-dealer. He receives compensation based on his production.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

Mr. Hemingway is a United Methodist minister and a Licensed Professional Counselor. He is a counselor at Crossroads Christian Counseling Center and continues to focus on clergy issues, marriage-parenting-family issues, and a wide range of individual issues for clients ranging in age from middle school through older adults. He also continues to minister to local churches throughout the conference through workshops, events, Marriage Enrichment Retreats, preaching and referrals from clergy and conference members. Mr. Hemingway devotes approximately 50% of his time to these endeavors and receives compensation for some of these services; however, Smith, Brown & Groover, Inc. does not receive any compensation for these services.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Neither Mr. Hemingway nor our advisory firm is compensated for advisory services involving performance-based fees, and firm policy does not allow associated persons to accept or receive additional economic benefit, such as sales awards or other prizes, for providing advisory services to firm clients.

Item 6 Supervision

We supervise our investment advisor representatives in the following ways:

- Compare activity in the client account with the investment objectives;
- Ensure all financial information and investment objectives have been recorded;
- Confirm that all clients are contacted during three-year books and records to find out if there are any changes in financial information or investment objectives;
- Verify all clients receive quarterly statements;
- Review advisory fees and ensure they are being charged correctly;
- Review account to ensure the client is not invested in securities that do not match risk tolerance.

Mr. Hemingway is directly supervised by Raymond H. Smith, Jr.

Questions relative to the firm, its services or this brochure supplement may be made to the attention of Holli Edwards, Audit & Compliance Specialist/CFO at (478) 474-7004 or holli@sbgwealth.com.

Item 7 Requirement for State-Registered Advisers

Mr. Hemingway has not been involved in any arbitration award or liability, or any civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding, nor has he been the subject of any bankruptcy petition.
