PRIVATE MONEY MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Our firm provides continuous advice to a client (individuals and trusts, estates, non-profit organizations and charitable organizations) regarding the investment of client funds based on the individual needs of the client. Through personal discussions in which goals and objectives based on a client's particular circumstances are established, we develop a client's personal investment policy and create and manage a portfolio based on that policy. During our data-gathering process, we determine the client's individual objectives, time horizons, risk tolerance, and liquidity needs. As appropriate, we also review and discuss a client's prior investment history, as well as family composition and background.

We manage these advisory accounts on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. Account supervision is guided by the client's stated objectives (e.g. conservative, moderate, balanced, growth, aggressive), as well as tax considerations.

Clients may impose reasonable restrictions on investing in certain securities, types of securities, or industry sectors.

Our investment recommendations are not limited to any specific product or service offered by a broker-dealer or insurance company and will generally include advice regarding the following securities:

- Exchange-listed securities
- Securities traded over-the-counter
- Foreign issuers
- Corporate debt securities (other than commercial paper)
- Commercial paper
- Certificates of deposit
- Municipal securities
- Variable life insurance
- Variable annuities
- Mutual fund shares

- United States governmental securities
- Options contracts on securities
- Interests in partnerships investing in real estate

Because some types of investments involve certain additional degrees of risk, they will only be implemented/recommended when consistent with the client's stated investment objectives, tolerance for risk, liquidity and suitability.

COMPREHENSIVE WEALTH MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Our firm also provides Comprehensive Wealth Management Services to clients which include all of the services listed for Private Money Management clients plus certain financial planning services which may involve tax planning, retirement planning, risk management analysis, estate planning, cash flow planning, business planning and/or education planning.

RETIREMENT PLAN CONSULTING SERVICES

If Client decides to have a QDIA under the plan and decides upon the type of investment that will serve as a QDIA, the Greenspring will select the investment to serve as the QDIA. SELECTION OF OTHER ADVISORS

Greenspring may direct clients to third party money managers. Greenspring is not compensated from the advisors to which it directs those clients although our advisory fees will be billed against these assets. Before selecting other advisors for clients, Greenspring will always ensure those other advisors are properly licensed or registered as an investment advisor.

AMOUNT OF MANAGED ASSETS

As of 12/31/2023, we were actively managing $2,914,748,218 of clients' assets on a discretionary basis plus $3,981,619,681 of clients' assets on a non-discretionary basis.

Item 5 Fees and Compensation

Wealth Management Services

The annualized fee for Wealth Management Services will be charged as a percentage of assets under management, according to the schedule detailed in the client agreement not to exceed 1.32% annually of the assets under management.

Based on the fee schedule above, a minimum annual fee of $5,000 is required Wealth Management Services. If a client's assets under management are not sufficient to generate the minimum annual fee, they have the option paying the difference (until their assets are sufficient) to receive the desired level of service. For instance, if a client desires to receive Wealth Management Services and their assets generate an annualized fee of $4,000, they have the option of paying the difference (i.e. an additional $1,000) to reach the minimum annual fee of $5,000 until the assets under management are sufficient to generate the minimum annual fee. Fees are paid by check, wire, or ACH.

Limited Negotiability of Advisory Fees: Although Greenspring Advisors has established the aforementioned fee schedule(s), we retain the discretion to negotiate lower fees on a client-by-client basis. Client facts, circumstances and needs will be considered in determining the fee schedule. These include the complexity of the client, assets to be placed under management, anticipated future additional assets; related accounts; portfolio style, account composition, reports, among other factors. The specific annual fee schedule will be identified in the contract between the adviser and each client.

Discounts, not generally available to our advisory clients, may be offered to family members and friends of associated persons of our firm.

Termination and Refunds: All advisory fees are billed on a quarterly basis in advance or arrears. If services are terminated mid-billing period for fees billed in advance, charges will be prorated based on the number of days that services were provided prior to receipt of notice of termination. The unearned portion of the fee based on the above proration will be refunded to the client.

Advisory Fee Disclaimer: Lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources.

RETIREMENT PLAN CONSULTING FEES

Our fees for Retirement Plan Consulting Services are based on a percentage of assets under advisement, detailed in the client agreement not to exceed 0.50% annually of the assets under advisement.

Alternatively, we may charge an annual fee for Retirement Plan Consulting Services which generally ranges from $20,000 to $200,000 depending on the services requested and the size of the plan.

Plan sponsors are invoiced in advance at the beginning of each calendar quarter unless their retirement plan provider's billing system requires billing to occur in arrears. There are two ways that a Plan might pay our fee.

Employer pays

An Employer may pay our fee, paying it from the Employer's money without using the Plan's assets.

Concerning a Governmental Plan, we may refuse to accept payment from an Employer if we believe that the Employer lacks authority to pay our fee.

Plan pays

A Plan may pay our fee. To do so, the Plan's Named Fiduciary or Trustee must have and use a power to pay us, or to instruct a corporate directed trustee or insurer to pay us. If the Plan pays our fee, the Named Fiduciary or Trustee decides how to allocate that expense among the Plan's accounts, which may include Participants' Plan Accounts.

We never have authority to "deduct" or collect our fee from a Plan's or any person's assets. Only the Plan Sponsor can pay our fee or direct the Plan to pay our fee.

A total minimum annual fee of $20,000 is generally required although exceptions may be granted to this minimum at the discretion of Greenspring. This minimum fee may prevent Greenspring Advisors from providing services to very small ERISA plans.

Limited Negotiability of Advisory Fees: Although Greenspring Advisors has established the aforementioned fee schedule(s), we retain the discretion to negotiate lower fees on a client-by-client basis. Client facts, circumstances and needs will be considered in determining the fee schedule. These include the complexity of the client, assets to be placed under management, anticipated future additional assets; related accounts; portfolio style, account composition, reports, among other factors. The specific annual fee schedule will be identified in the contract between the adviser and each client.

Termination and Refunds: Unless the plan provider requires advisory fees to be paid in arrears, all advisory fees are billed on a quarterly basis in advance. If services are terminated mid-billing period, charges will be prorated based on the number of days that services were provided prior to receipt of notice of termination. The unearned portion of the fee based on the above proration will be refunded to the client for fees billed in advance.

Advisory Fee Disclaimer: Lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources.

INSTITUTIONAL INVESTMENT CONSULTING

The annualized fee for Institutional Investment Consulting Services will be charged as a percentage of assets under management, according to the schedule detailed in the client agreement not to exceed 1.32% annually of the assets under management.

Based on the fee schedule above, a minimum annual fee of $5,000 is required for Institutional Investment Consulting Services. If a client's assets under management are not sufficient to generate the minimum annual fee, they have the option paying the difference (until their assets are sufficient) to receive the desired level of service. For instance, if a client desires to receive Institutional Investment Consulting Services and their assets generate an annualized fee of $4,000, they have the option of paying the difference (i.e. an additional $1,000) to reach the minimum annual fee of $5,000 until the assets under management are sufficient to generate the minimum annual fee.

Limited Negotiability of Advisory Fees: Although Greenspring Advisors has established the aforementioned fee schedule(s), we retain the discretion to negotiate lower fees on a client-by-client basis. Client facts, circumstances and needs will be considered in determining the fee schedule. These include the complexity of the client, assets to be placed under management, anticipated future additional assets; related accounts; portfolio style, account composition, reports, among other factors. The specific annual fee schedule will be identified in the contract between the adviser and each client.

Discounts, not generally available to our advisory clients, may be offered to family members and friends of associated persons of our firm.

Termination and Refunds: All advisory fees are billed on a quarterly basis in advance or arrears. If services are terminated mid-billing period for fees billed in advance, charges will be prorated based on the number of days that services were provided prior to receipt of notice of termination. The unearned portion of the fee based on the above proration will be refunded to the client.

Advisory Fee Disclaimer: Lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources.

PARTICIPANT-LEVEL DISCRETIONARY INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES UNDER SECTION 3(38) OF ERISA Fees

The 3(38) fees are 0.05% annually and billed monthly across plan assets based on the prior month end balance.

FINANCIAL PLANNING FEES

Greenspring Advisors Financial Planning fee will be determined based on the nature of the services being provided and the complexity of each client's circumstances. All fees are agreed upon prior to entering into a contract with any client.

Our Financial Planning fees are calculated and charged on a fixed fee basis, typically ranging from $2,000 to $150,000, depending on the specific arrangement reached with the client.

Alternatively, our Financial Planning fees may be calculated and charged on an hourly basis, ranging from $150 to $750 per hour. Although the length of time it will take to provide a Financial Plan will depend on each client's personal situation, we will provide an estimate for the total hours at the start of the advisory relationship.

We require one-half of the negotiated financial planning fee to be paid at the outset of the engagement with the balance is due upon completion of the plan. Fees paid in advance will never be more than six months in advance. Fees that are charged in advance will be refunded based on the prorated amount of work completed at the point of termination.

Financial Planning Fee Offset: Greenspring Advisors reserves the discretion to reduce or waive the hourly fee and/or the minimum fixed fee if a financial planning client chooses to engage us for our Private Money Management or Comprehensive Wealth Management Services.

The client will be billed quarterly in advance based on our total estimated Financial Planning fees.

The client will be billed quarterly in arrears based on actual hours accrued.

Item 6 Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Greenspring Advisors does not charge performance-based fees. As a matter of policy and practice, Greenspring does not generally block client trades and, therefore, will typically implement client transactions separately for each account. Due to this practice, certain client trades may be executed before others and, depending on the type of security traded, may be executed at a different price and/or commission rate. Additionally, Greenspring clients may not receive volume discounts which may be available to advisers that block client trades.

Item 7 Types of Clients

Greenspring Advisors provides advisory services to the following types of clients:

- Individuals (other than high net worth individuals)
- High net worth individuals
- Pension and profit sharing plans including plan participants
- Trusts, estates, non-profit and/or charitable organizations
- Corporations or other businesses not listed above

As previously disclosed in Item 5, our firm has established certain initial minimum account requirements, based on the nature of the service(s) being provided. For a more detailed understanding of those requirements, please review the disclosures provided in each applicable service.

Item 8 Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

We use the following methods of analysis in formulating our investment advice and/or managing client assets:

Fundamental Analysis. We attempt to measure the intrinsic value of a security by looking at economic and financial factors (including the overall economy, industry conditions, and the financial condition and management of the company itself) to determine if the company is underpriced (indicating it may be a good time to buy) or overpriced (indicating it may be time to sell).

Fundamental analysis does not attempt to anticipate market movements. This presents a potential risk, as the price of a security can move up or down along with the overall market regardless of the economic and financial factors considered in evaluating the stock.

Quantitative Analysis. We use mathematical models in an attempt to obtain more accurate measurements of a company's quantifiable data, such as the value of a share price or earnings per share, and predict changes to that data.

A risk in using quantitative analysis is that the models used may be based on assumptions that prove to be incorrect.

Qualitative Analysis. We subjectively evaluate non-quantifiable factors such as quality of management, labor relations, and strength of research and development factors not readily subject to measurement, and predict changes to share price based on that data.

A risk in using qualitative analysis is that our subjective judgment may prove incorrect.

Asset Allocation. Rather than focusing primarily on securities selection, we attempt to identify an appropriate ratio of securities, fixed income, and cash suitable to the client's investment goals and risk tolerance.

A risk of asset allocation is that the client may not participate in sharp increases in a particular security, industry or market sector. Another risk is that the ratio of securities, fixed income, and cash will change over time due to stock and market movements and, if not corrected, will no longer be appropriate for the client's goals.

Mutual Fund and/or ETF Analysis. We look at the experience and track record of the manager of the mutual fund or ETF in an attempt to determine if that manager has demonstrated an ability to invest over a period of time and in different economic conditions. We also look at the underlying assets in a mutual fund or ETF in an attempt to determine if there is significant overlap in the underlying investments held in another fund(s) in the client's portfolio. We also monitor the funds or ETFs in an attempt to determine if they are continuing to follow their stated investment strategy.

A risk of mutual fund and/or ETF analysis is that, as in all securities investments, past performance does not guarantee future results. A manager who has been successful may not be able to replicate that success in the future. In addition, as we do not control the underlying investments in a fund or ETF, managers of different funds held by the client may purchase the same security, increasing the risk to the client if that security were to fall in value. There is also a risk that a manager may deviate from the stated investment mandate or strategy of the fund or ETF, which could make the holding(s) less suitable for the client's portfolio.

Third-Party Money Manager Analysis. We examine the experience, expertise, investment philosophies, and past performance of independent third-party investment managers in an attempt to determine if that manager has demonstrated an ability to invest over a period of time and in different economic conditions. We monitor the manager's underlying holdings, strategies, concentrations and leverage as part of our overall periodic risk assessment. Additionally, as part of our due-diligence process, we may survey the manager's compliance and business enterprise risks.

A risk of investing with a third-party manager who has been successful in the past is that he/she may not be able to replicate that success in the future. In addition, as we do not control the underlying investments in a third-party manager's portfolio, there is also a risk that a manager may deviate from the stated investment mandate or strategy of the portfolio, making it a less suitable investment for our clients. Moreover, as we do not control the manager's daily business and compliance operations, we may be unaware of the lack of internal controls necessary to prevent business, regulatory or reputational deficiencies.

Risks for all forms of analysis. Our securities analysis methods rely on the assumption that the companies whose securities we purchase and sell, the rating agencies that review these securities, and other publicly-available sources of information about these securities, are providing accurate and unbiased data. While we are alert to indications that data may be incorrect, there is always a risk that our analysis may be compromised by inaccurate or misleading information.

INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

We use the following strategy(ies) in managing client accounts, provided that such strategy(ies) are appropriate to the needs of the client and consistent with the client's investment objectives, risk tolerance, and time horizons, among other considerations:

Long-term purchases. We purchase securities with the idea of holding them in the client's account for a year or longer. Typically we employ this strategy when:

- we believe the securities to be currently undervalued, and/or

- we want exposure to a particular asset class over time, regardless of the current projection for this class.

A risk in a long-term purchase strategy is that by holding the security for this length of time, we may not take advantages of short-term gains that could be profitable to a client. Moreover, if our predictions are incorrect, a security may decline sharply in value before we make the decision to sell.

Short-term purchases. When utilizing this strategy, we purchase securities with the idea of selling them within a relatively short time (typically a year or less). We do this in an attempt to take advantage of conditions that we believe will soon result in a price swing in the securities we purchase.

A short-term purchase strategy poses risks should the anticipated price swing not materialize; we are then left with the option of having a long-term investment in a security that was designed to be a short-term purchase, or potentially taking a loss.

In addition, this strategy involves more frequent trading than does a longer-term strategy, and will result in increased brokerage and other transaction-related costs, as well as less favorable tax treatment of short-term capital gains.

Risk of Loss. Securities investments are not guaranteed and you may lose money on your investments. We ask that you work with us to help us understand your tolerance for risk.

Item 9 Disciplinary Information

We are required to disclose any legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of our advisory business or the integrity of our management.

Our firm and our management personnel have no reportable disciplinary events to disclose.

Greenspring Advisors and our personnel owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards our clients, and have an obligation to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code of Ethics but to the general principles that guide the Code.

Among other things, our Code of Ethics also requires the prior approval of any acquisition of securities in a limited offering (e.g., private placement) or an initial public offering. Our code also provides for oversight, enforcement and recordkeeping provisions.

Greenspring Advisors Code of Ethics further includes the firm's policy prohibiting the use of material non-public information. While we do not believe that we have any particular access to non-public information, all employees are reminded that such information may not be used in a personal or professional capacity.

A copy of our Code of Ethics is available to our advisory clients and prospective clients. You may request a copy by email sent to patrick.collins@greenspringadvisors.com, or by calling us at 443-564-4600.

Greenspring Advisors and individuals associated with our firm are prohibited from engaging in principal transactions.

Greenspring Advisors and individuals associated with our firm are prohibited from engaging in agency cross transactions.

Our Code of Ethics is designed to assure that the personal securities transactions, activities and interests of our employees will not interfere with (i) making decisions in the best interest of advisory clients and (ii) implementing such decisions while, at the same time, allowing employees to invest for their own accounts.

Our firm and/or individuals associated with our firm may buy or sell for their personal accounts securities identical to or different from those recommended to our clients. In addition, any related person(s) may have an interest or position in a certain security or securities which may also be recommended to a client.

It is the expressed policy of our firm that no person employed by us may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction(s) being implemented for an advisory account, thereby preventing such employee(s) from benefiting from transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts.

As these situations represent actual or potential conflicts of interest to our clients, we have established the following policies and procedures for implementing our firm's Code of Ethics, to ensure our firm complies with its regulatory obligations and provides our clients and potential clients with full and fair disclosure of such conflicts of interest:

1. No principal or employee of our firm may put his or her own interest above the interest of an advisory client.
2. No principal or employee of our firm may buy or sell securities for their personal portfolio(s) where their decision is a result of information received as a result of his or her employment unless the information is also available to the investing public.
3. It is the expressed policy of our firm that no person employed by us may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction(s) being implemented for an advisory account. This prevents such employees from benefiting from transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts.
4. Our firm requires prior approval for any IPO or private placement investments by related persons of the firm.
5. We maintain a list of all reportable securities holdings for our firm and anyone associated with this advisory practice that has access to advisory recommendations ("access person"). These holdings are reviewed on a regular basis by our firm's Chief Compliance Officer or his/her designee.
6. We have established procedures for the maintenance of all required books and records.
7. Clients can decline to implement any advice rendered, except in situations where our firm is granted discretionary authority.
8. All of our principals and employees must act in accordance with all applicable Federal and State regulations governing registered investment advisory practices.
9. We require delivery and acknowledgement of the Code of Ethics by each supervised person of our firm.
10. We have established policies requiring the reporting of Code of Ethics violations to our senior management.
11. Any individual who violates any of the above restrictions may be subject to termination.

Item 12 Brokerage Practices

For discretionary clients, Greenspring Advisors requires these clients to provide us with written authority to determine the broker dealer to use and the commission costs that will be charged to these clients for these transactions.

As a matter of policy and practice, Greenspring does not generally block client trades and, therefore, will typically implement client transactions separately for each account. Due to this practice, certain client trades may be executed before others and, depending on the type of security traded, may be executed at a different price and/or commission rate. Additionally, Greenspring clients may not receive volume discounts which may be available to advisers that block client trades.

Greenspring generally recommends that investment management accounts be maintained at Fidelity or Schwab. Prior to engaging Greenspring to provide investment management services, the client will be required to enter into a formal Investment Advisory Agreement with Greenspring setting forth the terms and conditions under which Greenspring shall manage the client's assets, and a separate custodial/clearing agreement with each designated broker-dealer/ custodian.

Factors that the Greenspring considers in recommending Fidelity or Schwab (or any other broker-dealer/custodian to clients) include historical relationship with Greenspring, financial strength, reputation, execution capabilities, pricing, research, and service. Although the commissions and/or transaction fees paid by Greenspring's clients shall comply with Greenspring's duty to obtain best execution, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where Greenspring determines, in good faith, that the commission/transaction fee is reasonable. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including, but not limited to, the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Accordingly, although Greenspring will seek competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client account transactions. The brokerage commissions or transaction fees charged by the designated broker-dealer/custodian are exclusive of, and in addition to, Greenspring's investment management fee. Greenspring's best execution responsibility is qualified if securities that it purchases for client accounts are mutual funds that trade at net asset value as determined at the daily market close.

Research and Additional Benefits

Although not a material consideration when determining whether to recommend that a client utilize the services of a particular broker-dealer/custodian, Greenspring may receive from Fidelity or Schwab (or another broker-dealer/custodian, investment platform, and/or mutual fund sponsor) without cost (and/or at a discount) support services and/or products, certain of which assist the Greenspring to better monitor and service client accounts maintained at such institutions. Included within the support services that may be obtained by Greenspring may be investment-related research, pricing information and market data, software and other technology that provide access to client account data, compliance and/or practice management-related publications, discounted or gratis consulting services, discounted and/or gratis attendance at conferences, meetings, and other educational and/or social events, marketing support, computer hardware and/or software and/or other products used by Greenspring in furtherance of its investment advisory business operations.

As indicated above, certain of the support services and/or products that may be received may assist Greenspring in managing and administering client accounts. Others do not directly provide such assistance, but rather assist Greenspring to manage and further develop its business enterprise.

Greenspring's clients do not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at, Fidelity or Schwab as a result of this arrangement. There is no corresponding commitment made by Greenspring to Fidelity or Schwab or any other entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific mutual funds, securities or other investment products as a result of the above arrangement.

Greenspring works with many different vendors in the retirement plan industry to serve the needs of our clients. There is no direct link between our firm's relationship with these vendors and the advisory services we provide to our clients, although we may receive economic benefits through these relationships that may not otherwise be available.

These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): research related products and tools; consulting services; access to an electronic communications network for client account information; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to Greenspring by third party vendors. These vendors may also pay for business consulting and professional services received by Greenspring's related persons.

These vendors may also pay or reimburse expenses (including travel, lodging, meals, and entertainment expenses) for Greenspring's personnel to attend conferences or meetings relating to their services.

Some of the products and services made available by these vendors may benefit Greenspring but may not benefit our client accounts. These products or services may assist us in managing and administering client accounts. Other services made available by these vendors are intended to help us manage and further develop our business enterprise. The benefits received by Greenspring or our personnel do not depend on the amount of business directed to these vendors. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by Greenspring Advisors or our related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence our choice or recommendation of these vendors for retirement plan provider services.

Greenspring's Chief Compliance Officer John Patrick Collins, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above arrangement and any corresponding perceived conflict of interest such arrangement may create.

Item 13 Review of Accounts

PRIVATE MONEY MANAGEMENT AND COMPREHENSIVE WEALTH MANAGEMENT SERVICES

REVIEWS: While the underlying securities within Private Money Management and Comprehensive Wealth Management Services accounts are continually monitored, these accounts are generally reviewed at least quarterly, but no less than annually. Accounts are reviewed by advisors in the context of each client's stated investment objectives and guidelines. More frequent reviews may be triggered by material changes in variables such as the client's individual circumstances, or the market, political or economic environment.

REPORTS: In addition to the monthly statements and confirmations of transactions that clients receive from their broker-dealer, we provide quarterly reports summarizing account performance, balances and holdings.

RETIREMENT PLAN CONSULTING SERVICES

REVIEWS: Greenspring Advisors will review the client's Investment Policy Statement (IPS) whenever the client advises us of a change in circumstances regarding the needs of the plan. Greenspring Advisors will also review the investment options of the plan according to the agreed upon time intervals established in the IPS. Such reviews are conducted by advisors and will generally occur quarterly, but no less than annually.

REPORTS: Greenspring Advisors will provide reports to Retirement Plan Consulting Services clients based on the terms set forth in the client's Investment Policy Statement (IPS).

FINANCIAL PLANNING SERVICES

REVIEWS: While reviews may occur at different stages depending on the nature and terms of the specific engagement, typically no formal reviews will be conducted for Financial Planning clients unless otherwise contracted for.

REPORTS: Financial Planning clients will receive a completed financial plan. Additional reports will not typically be provided unless otherwise contracted for.

Item 14 Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Greenspring does not receive any economic benefit, directly or indirectly from any third party for advice rendered to Greenspring clients.

Item 15 Custody

We previously disclosed in the "Fees and Compensation" section (Item 5) of this Brochure that our firm directly debits advisory fees from client accounts.

As part of this billing process, the client's custodian is advised of the amount of the fee to be deducted from that client's account. On at least a quarterly basis, the custodian is required to send to the client a statement showing all transactions within the account during the reporting period.

Because the custodian does not calculate the amount of the fee to be deducted, it is important for clients to carefully review their custodial statements to verify the accuracy of the calculation, among other things. Clients should contact us directly if they believe that there may be an error in their statement.

Our firm does not have actual or constructive custody of client accounts.

Item 16 Investment Discretion

Clients may hire us to provide discretionary asset management services, in which case we place trades in a client's account without contacting the client prior to each trade to obtain the client's permission.

Our discretionary authority includes the ability to do the following without contacting the client:

- Determine the security to buy or sell; and/or
- Determine the amount of the security to buy or sell; and/or
- Determine the broker-dealer where trades will be executed; and/or
- Determine the amount of commission paid for trade execution

Clients give us discretionary authority when they sign a discretionary agreement with our firm, and may limit this authority by giving us written instructions. Clients may also change/amend such limitations by once again providing us with written instructions.

Item 17 Voting Client Securities

As a matter of firm policy, we do not vote proxies on behalf of clients. Therefore, although our firm may provide investment advisory services relative to client investment assets, clients maintain exclusive responsibility for: (1) directing the manner in which proxies solicited by issuers of securities beneficially owned by the client shall be voted, and (2) making all elections relative to any mergers, acquisitions, tender offers, bankruptcy proceedings or other type events pertaining to the client's investment assets. Clients are responsible for instructing each custodian of the assets, to forward to the client copies of all proxies and shareholder communications relating to the client's investment assets.

We may provide clients with consulting assistance regarding proxy issues if they contact us with questions at our principal place of business.

Item 18 Financial Information

Under no circumstances do we require or solicit payment of fees in excess of $1,200 per client more than six months in advance of services rendered. Therefore, we are not required to include a financial statement.

As an advisory firm that maintains discretionary authority for client accounts, we are also required to disclose any financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet our contractual obligations. Currently, there are no such financial conditions that exist.

Greenspring Advisors has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time during the past ten years.
