Item 4: Advisory Business

A. Description of the Advisory Firm

This firm has been in business since November 2010, and the principal owners are Jonathan Gideon Riley and Stuart Edwin Friedman.

B. Types of Advisory Services

RILEY FRIEDMAN ASSET MANAGEMENT (hereinafter “RFAM”) offers the following services to advisory clients:

Investment Supervisory Services

RFAM offers ongoing portfolio management services based on the individual goals, objectives, time horizon, and risk tolerance of each client. Investment Supervisory Services include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Investment strategy
- Asset allocation
- Risk tolerance
- Personal investment policy
- Asset selection
- Regular portfolio monitoring

RFAM evaluates the current investments of each client with respect to their risk tolerance levels and time horizon.

Financial Planning

RFAM includes basic financial planning in the management fee charged to each client. This planning includes but is not limited to analysis of income and expenses, projections of how much capital will be required in order to retire, and whether clients require life insurance or estate planning.

Services Limited to Specific Types of Investments

RFAM invests in individual stocks and individual bonds to create diversified portfolios in client accounts.

RFAM will offer limited investment advice on mutual funds, ETFs, real estate, hedge funds, third party money managers, REITs, private placements and government securities.

C. Client Tailored Services and Client Imposed Restrictions

RFAM offers the same suite of services to all of its clients. However, specific client financial plans and their implementation are dependent upon each client's current situation (income, tax levels, and risk tolerance levels) and is used to construct a client specific plan to aid in the selection of a portfolio that matches restrictions, needs, and targets.

Clients may impose restrictions in investing in certain securities or types of securities in accordance with their values or beliefs. However, if the restrictions prevent RFAM from properly servicing the client account, or if the restrictions would require RFAM to deviate from its standard suite of services, RFAM reserves the right to end the relationship.

D. Wrap Fee Programs

RFAM does not participate in any wrap fee programs.

E. Amounts Under Management

RFAM has the following assets under management:

Discretionary Amounts:	Non-discretionary Amounts:	Date Calculated:
$ 451,912,760	$ 1,372,301	December 2023

Item 5: Fees and Compensation

A. Fee Schedule

Investment Supervisory Services Fees

Total Assets Under Management	Annual Fee
$1 - $500,000	1.00%
$500,001 - $10,000,000	0.50%
$10,000,001 and above	0.40%

These fees are negotiable and the final fee schedule is attached as Exhibit I of the Investment Advisory Contract. Fees are paid quarterly in advance, and clients may terminate their contracts with written notice. Refunds are given on a prorated basis, based on the number of days remaining in a quarter at the point of termination. Clients may terminate their contracts without penalty, for full refund, within 5 business days of signing the advisory contract. Advisory fees are withdrawn directly from the client's accounts with client written authorization.

B. Payment of Fees

Payment of Investment Supervisory Fees

Advisory fees are withdrawn directly from the client's accounts with client written authorization. Fees are paid quarterly in advance.

Clients may have the option of paying Advisory fees directly, with payments due quarterly.

C. Clients Are Responsible For Third Party Fees

Clients are responsible for the payment of all third party fees (i.e. custodian fees, mutual fund fees, transaction fee etc.). Those fees are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by RFAM. Please see Item 12 of this brochure regarding broker/custodian.

D. Prepayment of Fees

RFAM collects fees in advance. Fees that are collected in advance will be refunded based on the prorated amount of work completed at the point of termination and the total days during the billing period. Fees will be returned promptly to the client via check.

E. Outside Compensation For the Sale of Securities to Clients

Neither RFAM nor its supervised persons accept any compensation for the sale of securities or other investment products, including asset-based sales charges or service fees from the sale of mutual funds.

Item 6: Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

RFAM does not accept performance-based fees or other fees based on a share of capital gains on, or capital appreciation, of the assets of a client.

Item 7: Types of Clients

RFAM generally provides investment advice and/or management supervisory services to the following Types of Clients:

- ❖ Individuals
- ❖ High-Net-Worth Individuals
- ❖ Pension and Profit Sharing Plans

Minimum Account Size

There is an account minimum, $500,000, which may be waived by the investment advisor.

Item 8: Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk, of Investment Loss

A. Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies

RFAM's primary method of analysis includes fundamental analysis.

Fundamental analysis involves the analysis of financial statements, the general financial health of companies, and/or the analysis of management or competitive advantages.

Investing in securities involves a risk of loss that you, as a client, should be prepared to bear.

B. Material Risks Involved

RFAM is a long term investor focused on value oriented securities that we can purchase in client accounts. We emphasize preservation of capital, transparency, and liquidity. All investments entail risk, known and unknown. We mitigate risk in client accounts through diversification, which includes a money market fund.

C. Risks of Specific Securities Utilized

RFAM generally seeks investment strategies that do not involve significant or unusual risk beyond that of the general domestic and/or international equity markets.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities involves a risk of loss that you, as a client, should be prepared to bear.

Item 9: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of this advisory business or the integrity of our management.

Item 10: Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

A. Registration as a Broker/Dealer or Broker/Dealer Representative

Neither RFAM nor its representatives are registered as a broker/dealer or as representatives of a broker/dealer.

B. Registration as a Futures Commission Merchant, Commodity Pool Operator, or a Commodity Trading Advisor

Neither RFAM nor its representatives are registered as a FCM, CPO, or CTA.

C. Registration Relationships Material to this Advisory Business and Possible Conflicts of Interests

Neither RFAM nor its representatives have any material relationships to this advisory business that would present a possible conflict of interest.

D. Selection of Other Advisors or Managers and How This Adviser is Compensated for Those Selections

RFAM does not utilize nor select other advisors or third party managers. All assets are managed by RFAM management.

Item 11: Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Code of Ethics

We have a written Code of Ethics that covers the following areas: Prohibited Purchases and Sales, Insider Trading, Personal Securities Transactions, Exempted Transactions, Prohibited Activities, Conflicts of Interest, Gifts and Entertainment, Confidentiality, Service on a Board of Directors, Compliance Procedures, Compliance with Laws and Regulations, Procedures and Reporting, Certification of Compliance, Reporting Violations, Compliance Officer Duties, Training and Education, Recordkeeping, Annual Review, and Sanctions. Clients may request a copy of our Code of Ethics from management.

B. Recommendations Involving Material Financial Interests

RFAM does not recommend that clients buy or sell any security in which a related person to RFAM has a material financial interest.

C. Investing Personal Money in the Same Securities as Clients

From time to time, representatives of RFAM may buy or sell securities for themselves that they also recommend to clients. RFAM will always document any transactions that could be construed as conflicts of interest and will always transact client business before their own when similar securities are being bought or sold.

D. Trading Securities At/Around the Same Time as Clients' Securities

From time to time, representatives of RFAM may buy or sell securities for themselves at or around the same time as clients. However, securities transactions for employees must occur after transactions for clients.

Item 12: Brokerage Practices

A. Factors Used to Select Custodians and/or Broker/Dealers

In selecting a Custodian, we may consider a number of factors, including, for example, net price, reputation, financial strength and stability, efficiency of execution, clearance, settlement and error resolution, block trading, and online access to client account data.

B. Aggregating (Block) Trading for Multiple Client Accounts

RFAM maintains the ability to block trade purchases across accounts. While block trading may benefit clients by purchasing larger blocks in groups, we do not feel that the clients are at a disadvantage due to the best execution practices of our custodian.

C. Prime Brokerage

Prime Brokerage transactions are typically used for the purchase of bonds in client accounts. These transactions are executed through a broker-dealer and clients leave the selection of broker-dealers to RFAM.

Item 13: Reviews of Accounts

A. Frequency and Nature of Periodic Reviews and Who Makes Those Reviews

Client accounts are reviewed at least quarterly by Jonathan Gideon Riley and Stuart Edwin Friedman, Managing Members. Jonathan Gideon Riley and Stuart Edwin Friedman are the chief advisors and are instructed to review clients' accounts with regard to their investment policies and risk tolerance levels. All accounts at RFAM are assigned to one of the reviewers.

B. Factors That Will Trigger a Non-Periodic Review of Client Accounts

Reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events, or by changes in client's financial situations (such as retirement, termination of employment, physical move, or inheritance).

C. Content and Frequency of Regular Reports Provided to Clients

Each client will receive annually a written report detailing the client's account performance.

Item 14: Client Referrals and Other Compensation

A. Economic Benefits Provided by Third Parties for Advice Rendered to Clients (Includes Sales Awards or Other Prizes)

RFAM does not receive any economic benefit, directly or indirectly from any third party for advice rendered to RFAM clients.

B. Compensation to Non -Advisory Personnel for Client Referrals

RFAM does not directly or indirectly compensate any person for client referrals.

Item 15: Custody

RFAM does not take custody of client accounts at any time. Clients will receive account statements from the custodian and should carefully review those statements.

Item 16: Investment Discretion

For those client accounts where RFAM provides ongoing supervision, RFAM maintains limited power of authority over client accounts with respect to securities to be bought and sold and amount of securities to be bought and sold. All buying and selling of securities is explained to clients in detail before an advisory relationship has commenced.

Item 17: Voting Client Securities (Proxy Voting)

RFAM will not ask for, nor accept voting authority for client securities. Clients will receive proxies directly from the issuer of the security or the custodian. Clients should direct all proxy questions to the issuer of the security.

Item 18: Financial Information

A. Balance Sheet

RFAM does not require nor solicit prepayment of more than $1,200 in fees per client, six months or more in advance and therefore does not need to include a balance sheet with this brochure.

B. Financial Conditions Reasonably Likely to Impair Ability to Meet Contractual Commitments to Clients

Neither RFAM nor its management have any financial conditions that are likely to reasonably impair our ability to meet contractual commitments to clients.

C. Bankruptcy Petitions in Previous Ten Years

RFAM has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition in the last ten years.
