What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer customized investment advisory and financial planning services to retail investors. We offer advice on a full suite of securities, including fixed income, mutual funds, ETFs, and similar investments. Our services are generally provided on a discretionary basis, which means that we have the power to buy and sell securities for your account without your prior consent. This authority is usually unlimited and remains in effect until you revoke it. We may provide non-discretionary investment advice, where we make investment recommendations to you, and you decide whether to implement the recommendation. We do not give advice on any proprietary investment products.

We review portfolios no less than annually as part of our standard service to you. However, we do monitor accounts on a continuous basis and conduct ad hoc reviews if you change your objectives or risk tolerance, upon significant market and economic events, or if we change our investment strategy.

We require a minimum annual fee of $4,000. For portfolios valued at less than $500,000, the client may be able to find comparable services elsewhere for a lower fee. The minimum fee requirement can be waived in unique or special circumstances.

Other Questions You May Have

Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?

How will you choose investments to recommend to me?

What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Our quarterly fees are calculated as a percentage of the assets under our management, so our fees will rise and fall with the value of the assets we manage for you. While our fees may reduce the amount of your assets available for investment, we believe they are justified by our services and attention to your needs. Moreover, we believe our interests are aligned with yours in this type of fee structure. Nonetheless, a conflict of interest may appear in that we are economically incented to recommend that you place more assets in your account in order to increase the value of your portfolio, because as the value increases, so do our fees.

In addition to our fees, you will be charged transaction or asset-based fees by your custodian for its services. These fees vary depending on the custodian. Under a transaction fee arrangement, the more transactions effected in your account, the more fees you will pay, and high activity in your account does not assure positive portfolio performance. For custodians that charge their fees based upon a percentage of your assets, such fees may be more than would be the case if you are charged a transaction-based fee. Please be mindful of the effect of your portfolio size, the level of activity, and the rate of custodian asset-based pricing. Generally, large portfolios would be disadvantaged by paying an asset-based custodian fee versus a transaction-based fee. Some securities carry additional costs, such as mutual funds and ETFs. Financial planning fees will be charged at an hourly or fixed rate as agreed upon by you and the firm.

There are additional fees such as internal fees and expenses charged by mutual funds (i.e., 12b-1 distribution fees and management fees that are assessed within the mutual fund) and exchange-traded funds, third-party separate account manager fees, postage and handling, transfer taxes, SEC fees for sales of securities.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. You can find more information about our fees and costs under Item 5 of our Part 2A Brochure, available at Adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Other Questions You May Have

Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interests ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts, because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here is an example to help you understand what this means:

Certain personnel of CenterPoint may invest in the same or different securities as its clients, which could give rise to conflicts of interest in that the firm could trade securities ahead of its clients. We have Code of Ethics policies and procedures that address this conflict to ensure your interests come first and foremost.

Additional information regarding conflicts of interest can be found in Items 5, 10, and 11 of our Part 2A Brochure, available at Adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Other Questions You May Have

How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial advisers are compensated solely through a salary and bonus structure. The funds used to compensate the financial advisers are derived from the fees we collect from you. As such, we are incentivized to recommend that you add additional assets to your account. We do not receive non-cash compensation.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No. You can visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and financial professionals.

Other Questions You May Have

As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
