TEAM provides continuous and regular investment management services with respect to all accounts which include Separate and Mutual Fund Portfolio Management.

As of December 31, 2018, Team Financial Strategies manages over

$115,728,115 in assets for 882 accounts. Separate Account Portfolio Management

The firm provides personalized confidential financial planning and investment management to individuals, investment companies, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, registered investment companies and small businesses. Periodic reviews are also communicated to provide reminders of the specific courses of action that need to be taken. More frequent reviews occur but are not necessarily communicated to the client unless immediate changes are recommended.

Other professionals (e.g., lawyers, accountants, insurance agents, etc.) are engaged directly by the client on an as-needed basis.

Conflicts of interest will be disclosed to the client in the unlikely event they should occur.

The initial meeting, which may be by telephone or in person, is free of charge and is considered an exploratory interview to determine the extent to which financial planning and investment management may be beneficial to the client.

Joseph Team is the principal owner of the firm, owning more than 75%.

Item V: Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Methods of Analysis

Security analysis methods may include fundamental analysis, financial analysis, technical analysis, charting, cyclical and macro-economic analysis.

The main sources of information include, but are not limited to, financial newspapers and magazines, research materials prepared by others, corporate rating services, annual reports, prospectuses, filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and company press releases. TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES also pays a subscription for certain services to provide current information on stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds (ETF), and index funds.

Investment Strategies

The primary investment strategy used on client accounts is strategic asset allocation to match the goals and objectives of the client while taking into account current macro conditions and the client's risk tolerance. The firm's investment committee develops and maintains models that can be assigned for a given client risk tolerance. These models can then be tailored when necessary for the needs of the client. A combination of stocks, bonds, open end mutual funds, exchange traded mutual funds, options, and other investments can be utilized in attempting to carry out the client's objectives.

Other strategies may include long-term purchases, short-term purchases, trading, short sales, margin transactions, option purchases, and option writing (including covered options, uncovered options or spreading strategies).

Risk of Loss

All investment programs have certain risks that are borne by the investor. Our investment approach constantly keeps the risk of loss in mind. Investments in securities involve risk which may include the following:

Interest-rate Risk: Fluctuations in interest rates may cause investment prices to fluctuate. For example, when interest rates rise, yields on existing bonds become less attractive, causing their market values to decline.

- Market Risk: The price of a security, bond, or mutual fund may drop in reaction to tangible and intangible events and conditions. This type of risk is caused by external factors independent of a security's particular underlying circumstances. For example, political, economic and social conditions may trigger market events.
- Inflation Risk: When any type of inflation is present, a dollar today will not buy as much as a dollar next year, because purchasing power is eroding at the rate of inflation.
- Currency Risk: Overseas investments are subject to fluctuations in the value of the dollar against the currency of the investment's originating country. This is also referred to as exchange rate risk.

- Reinvestment Risk: This is the risk that future proceeds from investments may have to be reinvested at a potentially lower rate of return (i.e. interest rate). This primarily relates to fixed income securities.
- Business Risk: These risks are associated with a particular industry or a particular company within an industry. For example, oil-drilling companies depend on finding oil and then refining it, a lengthy process, before they can generate a profit. They carry a higher risk of profitability than an electric company, which generates its income from a steady stream of customers who buy electricity no matter what the economic environment is like.
- Liquidity Risk: Liquidity is the ability to readily convert an investment into cash. Generally, assets are more liquid if many traders are interested in a standardized product. For example, Treasury Bills are highly liquid, while real estate properties are not.
- Financial Risk: Excessive borrowing to finance a business' operations increases the risk of profitability, because the company must meet the terms of its obligations in good times and bad. During periods of financial stress, the inability to meet loan obligations may result in bankruptcy and/or a declining market value.

Item VI: Disciplinary Information

Legal and Disciplinary

The firm and its employees have not been involved in legal or disciplinary events related to past or present investment clients.

Item VII: Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Financial Industry Activities

Team Financial Strategies is not registered as a securities broker- dealer or a futures merchant commodity pool operator or commodity trading advisor and does not intend to seek any such registration and does not participate in any other financial industry activities.

Affiliations

Certain representatives of TEAM are affiliated with The Texas Fund (a registered, open-ended mutual fund). TEAM is not under common ownership with The Texas Fund, but representatives and/or agents of TEAM perform investment related services associated with managing the portfolio of The Texas Fund that may be considered to be 'affiliated.'

Item VIII: Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics

The employees of TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES have committed to a Code of Ethics that is available for review by clients and prospective clients upon request. The firm will provide a copy of the Code of Ethics to any client or prospective client upon request.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES and its employees may buy or sell securities that are also held by clients. Employees may not trade their own securities ahead of client trades. Employees comply with the provisions of the TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES Compliance Manual.

TEAM acts as investment sub-adviser to The Texas Fund (a registered mutual fund). With written client consent and to the extent The Texas Fund is selected to fill components of a client's overall strategy, TEAM may allocate a portion of client assets to the Texas Fund. Unless otherwise stated in the client investment advisory agreement, TEAM may invest the account assets in the institutional share class of such proprietary funds. It is possible, in certain circumstances, that the expenses (fees and administrative expenses) of the retail share class of the TEAM proprietary funds may exceed the sum of a given unaffiliated mutual fund's expenses plus the applicable account advisory fee.

Personal Trading

Employees of TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES are allowed to trade and hold securities also held by clients pursuant to the firm's Code of Ethics. Employees of TEAM are responsible to follow the firm's Code of Ethics. These activities are monitored by the Chief Compliance Officer, Joseph Team.

Item IX: Brokerage Practices

Selecting Brokerage Firms

TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES is not affiliated with a product sales firm. Specific custodian recommendations are made to clients based on their need for such services. TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES recommends custodians based on the proven integrity and financial responsibility of the firm and the best execution of orders at reasonable transaction costs.

TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES recommends brokerage firms and trust companies (qualified custodians). TEAM does not receive any compensation for recommending any brokerage firm or custodian. Generally, TEAM recommends that clients use the brokerage services of Fidelity or TD Ameritrade.

Factors which TEAM considers in recommending Fidelity and TD Ameritrade or any other broker-dealer to clients include their respective financial strength, reputation, execution, pricing, research and service. Some Custodians used by TEAM enable TEAM to obtain many mutual funds without transaction charges and other securities at nominal transaction charges. The commissions and/or transaction fees charged by these Custodians may be higher or lower than those charged by other Financial Institutions.

Best Execution

The commissions paid by TEAM's clients comply with TEAM's duty to obtain "best execution." Clients may pay commissions that are higher than another qualified Financial Institution might charge to affect the same transaction where TEAM determines that the commissions are reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a Financial Institution's services, including among others, the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. TEAM seeks competitive rates but may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client transactions.

The client may direct TEAM in writing to use a particular Financial Institution to execute some or all transactions for the client. In that case, the client will negotiate terms and arrangements for the account with that Financial Institution, and TEAM will not seek better execution services or prices from other Financial Institutions or be able to "batch" client transactions for execution through other Financial Institutions with orders for other accounts managed by TEAM (as described below). As a result, the client may pay higher commissions or other transaction costs or greater spreads, or receive less favorable net prices, on transactions for the account than would otherwise be the case. Subject to its duty of best execution, TEAM may decline a client's request to direct brokerage if, in TEAM's sole discretion, such directed brokerage arrangements would result in additional operational difficulties or violate restrictions imposed by other broker-dealers.

Item X: TEAM does not have any soft dollar arrangements.

Review of Accounts

Periodic Reviews

"Wealth Management" Client reviews are done on at least a quarterly basis through quarterly Investment Team reviews and reviews by the advisor for each client.

"Wealth Builder" and "Wealth Planning" clients will have perpetual access to their plans to monitor progress to the goals that have been set. Clients also have the responsibility to input material changes.

Advisors will review each client plan and suggest changes and improvements at least yearly. "Wealth Builder" and "Wealth Planning" clients have electronic access to the advisor for specific questions or recommendations on an ongoing basis.

Review Triggers

Other conditions that may trigger a review are changes in the tax laws, new investment information, and changes in a client's own situation. It will be the responsibility of the client to make the advisor aware of personal changes to the client's situation.

Regular Reports

Account reviewers are members of the firm's Investment Team. They are instructed to consider the client's current security positions and the likelihood that the performance of each security will contribute to the investment objectives of the client.

"Wealth Management" Clients receive periodic communications. Investment Management clients, and Annual Fee Agreement clients receive written quarterly updates. Quarterly updates will include portfolio performance on managed accounts along with a written statement of fees. "Wealth Builder" and "Wealth Planning" clients may access progress reports directly to monitor progress.

Item XI: Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Incoming Referrals

TEAM has been fortunate to receive many client referrals over the years. The referrals came from current clients, estate planning attorneys, accountants, employees, personal friends of employees and other similar sources. TEAM does not offer compensation for client referrals.

Referrals Out

TEAM does not accept referral fees or any form of remuneration from other professionals when a prospect or client is referred to them.

Other Compensation – The Texas Fund

TEAM acts as sub-adviser to the Texas Fund (a registered mutual fund) for which it receives a management fee. With written client consent, and to the extent the Texas Fund is selected to fill components of a client's overall strategy, TEAM may allocate a portion of client assets to the Texas Fund. TEAM will waive or discount the clients overall fee by the amount assessed on client's assets invested in the fund.

Item XII: Custody

Account Statements

TEAM does not have actual or constructive custody of client assets. The custodian sends quarterly statements to clients showing all transactions occurring on behalf of the client during the quarter, and the funds, securities and other property of the client held in the client's account at the end of the quarter. TEAM urges you to carefully review such statements and compare such official custodial records to the account statements that we may provide to you. Our statements may vary from custodial statements based on accounting procedures, reporting dates, or valuation methodologies of certain securities.

TEAM acts as sub-adviser to the Texas Fund (a registered mutual fund) for which it receives a management fee. With written client consent, and to the extent the Texas Fund is selected to fill components of a client's overall strategy, TEAM may allocate a portion of client assets to the Texas Fund. TEAM will waive or discount the clients overall fee by the amount assessed on client's assets invested in the fund.

Item XIII: Investment Discretion

Discretionary Authority for Trading

TEAM accepts discretionary authority to manage securities accounts on behalf of clients. TEAM has the authority to determine, without obtaining specific client consent, the securities to be bought or sold, and the amount of the securities to be bought or sold. TEAM consults with the client prior to each trade to obtain concurrence if a blanket trading authorization has not been given.

The client approves the custodian to be used and the transaction fees paid to the custodian. TEAM does not receive any portion of the transaction fees paid by the client to the custodian on certain trades.

Discretionary trading authority facilitates placing trades in your accounts on your behalf so that we may promptly implement the firm investment policy.

Non-Discretionary Authority for Trading

TEAM also works in a non-discretionary relationship with clients in some instances. In a non-discretionary relationship TEAM cannot make any changes to a client's account without obtaining specific client consent, the securities to be bought or sold, and the amount of the securities to be bought or sold.

The client approves the custodian to be used and the transaction fees paid to the custodian. TEAM does not receive any portion of the transaction fees paid by the client to the custodian.

Advisory Trading Authorization

TEAM FINANCIAL STRATEGIES acts as an agent on behalf of the client through a signed Advisor Authorization Agreement with each qualified custodian. This authorization is granted in the custodian's initial account application.

Item XIV: Voting Client Securities

Proxy Voting

TEAM does not vote proxies on securities. Clients are expected to vote their own proxies.

Item XV: Financial Information

Financial Condition

TEAM Has no financial circumstances to report. TEAM has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time since its inception. A balance sheet is not required to be provided because TEAM does not serve as a custodian for client funds or securities, and does not require prepayment of fees of more than $600 per client, and six months or more in advance.
