Advisory Business

Firm Description

BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC., ("BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC.") was founded in 1991.

BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. provides personalized confidential financial planning and investment management to individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations and small businesses. Advice is provided through consultation with the client and may include: determination of financial objectives, identification of financial problems, cash flow management, tax planning, insurance review, investment management, education funding, retirement planning and estate planning.

BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. is strictly a fee-only financial planning and investment management firm. The firm does not receive commissions for purchasing or selling annuities, insurance, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, limited partnerships, or other commissioned products. The firm is not affiliated with entities that sell financial products or securities. No commissions in any form are accepted. No finder's fees are accepted.

In addition, BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. advises clients regarding cash flow, college planning, retirement planning, tax planning and estate planning.

Investment advice is provided, with the client making the final decision on investment selection. BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. does not act as a custodian of client assets. The client always maintains asset control.

A written evaluation of each client's initial situation is provided to the client, often in the form of a net worth statement. Periodic reviews are also communicated to provide reminders of the specific courses of action that need to be taken. More frequent reviews occur but are not necessarily communicated to the client unless immediate changes are recommended.

Other professionals (e.g., lawyers, accountants, insurance agents, etc.) are engaged directly by the client on an as-needed basis. Conflicts of interest will be disclosed to the client in the unlikely event they should occur.

The initial meeting, which may be by telephone, is free of charge and is considered an exploratory interview to determine the extent to which financial planning and investment management may be beneficial to the client.

Principal Owners

ARTHUR N. BUDGE, JR. is the 100% stockholder.

Types of Advisory Services

BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. provides investment supervisory services, also known as asset management services; manages investment advisory accounts not involving investment supervisory services; furnishes investment advice through consultations;; issues special reports about securities; and issues, charts, graphs, formulas, or other devices which clients may use to evaluate securities.

On more than an occasional basis, BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. furnishes advice to clients on matters not involving securities, such as financial planning matters, taxation issues, and trust services that often include estate planning.

As of December 31, 2010 BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. manages approximately $102,736,619 in assets for approximately 12 clients. Approximately $0 is managed on a discretionary basis, and $102,736,619 is managed on a basis.

Tailored Relationships

The goals and objectives for each client are documented in our client relationship management system. Investment policy statements are created that reflect the stated goals and objective. Clients may impose restrictions on investing in certain securities or types of securities.

Agreements may not be assigned without client consent.

Types of Agreements

The following agreements define the typical client relationships.

Financial Planning Agreement

A financial plan is designed to help the client with all aspects of financial planning without ongoing investment management after the financial plan is completed.

The financial plan may include, but is not limited to: a net worth statement; a cash flow statement; a review of investment accounts, including reviewing asset allocation and providing repositioning recommendations; strategic tax planning; a review of retirement accounts and plans including recommendations; a review of insurance policies and recommendations for changes, if necessary; one or more retirement scenarios; estate planning review and recommendations; and education planning with funding recommendations.

Detailed investment advice and specific recommendations are provided as part of a financial plan. Implementation of the recommendations is at the discretion of the client.

The fee for financial planning and related services is predicated upon the facts known at the start of the engagement. BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. has a fixed fee agreement with each of its clients. The annualized management fee is payable monthly and has been negotiated with the client, as stated in the Engagement Letter. Since financial planning is a discovery process, situations occur wherein the client is unaware of certain financial exposures or predicaments.

In the event that the client's situation is substantially different than disclosed at the initial meeting, a revised fee will be provided for mutual agreement. The client must approve the change of scope in advance of the additional work being performed when a fee increase is necessary.

After delivery of a financial plan, future face-to-face meetings may be scheduled as necessary. Follow-on implementation above and beyond the original scope may be billed separately at a mutually agreed upon rate.

Investment Advisory & Management Agreement

Most clients choose to have BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. manage their assets in order to obtain ongoing in-depth advice and life planning. All aspects of the client's financial affairs are reviewed, including those of their children. Realistic and measurable goals are set and objectives to reach those goals are defined. As goals and objectives change over time, suggestions are made and implemented on an ongoing basis.

The scope of work and fee for an Investment Advisory & Management Agreement is provided to the client in writing prior to the start of the relationship. An Investment Advisory & Management Agreement includes: cash flow management; insurance review; investment management (including performance reporting); education planning; retirement planning; estate planning; and tax preparation, as well as the implementation of recommendations within each area.

Although the Investment Advisory & Management Agreement is an ongoing agreement and constant adjustments are required, the length of service to the client is at the client's discretion. The client or the investment manager may terminate an Agreement by written notice to the other party. At termination, fees will be billed on a pro rata basis for the portion of the quarter completed.

Asset Management

Assets are invested primarily in no-load or low-load mutual funds and exchange-traded funds, usually through discount brokers or fund companies. Fund companies charge each fund shareholder an investment management fee that is disclosed in the fund prospectus. Discount brokerages may charge a transaction fee for the purchase of some funds.

Stocks and bonds may be purchased or sold through a brokerage account when appropriate. The brokerage firm charges a fee for stock and bond trades. BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. does not receive any compensation, in any form, from fund companies.

Investments may also include: equities (stocks), warrants, corporate debt securities, commercial paper, certificates of deposit, municipal securities, investment company securities (variable life insurance, variable annuities, and mutual funds shares), U. S. government securities, options contracts, futures contracts, and interests in partnerships.

Initial public offerings (IPOs) are not available through BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC.

Termination of Agreement

A Client may terminate any of the aforementioned agreements at any time by notifying BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. in writing and paying the rate for the time spent on the investment advisory engagement prior to notification of termination. If the client made an advance payment, BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. will refund any unearned portion of the advance payment.

BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. may terminate any of the aforementioned agreements at any time by notifying the client in writing. If the client made an advance payment, BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. will refund any unearned portion of the advance payment.

Fees and Compensation

Client relationships vary in scope and length of service.

Account Minimums

Budge Financial, Inc. requires a minimum of $5 million net worth value in assets for clients considered sophisticated investors starting an account.

Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Methods of Analysis

Security analysis methods may include charting, fundamental analysis, technical analysis, and cyclical analysis.

The main sources of information include financial newspapers and magazines, inspections of corporate activities, research materials prepared by others, corporate rating services, timing services, annual reports, prospectuses, filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and company press releases.

Other sources of information that BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. may use include Morningstar Principia mutual fund information, Morningstar Principia stock information, Charles Schwab & Company's "SchwabLink" service, Advisor Intelligence, and the World Wide Web.

Investment Strategies

Client represents that all investment monies and accounts to be managed by Advisor are of legitimate origin. Advisor shall assist Client in developing his personal "Portfolio Investment Strategy", as described below. It shall be determined by Client based on his objective, profile and risk preference level. The "Portfolio Investment Strategy" shall dictate the guidelines to be followed by Advisor in recommending investments for Client's investment accounts.

Client further acknowledges that participation in this Agreement is consistent with Client's current financial status, investment needs and objectives as presented to Advisor, and that Client shall immediately notify Advisor of any material change(s), i.e., membership, capital, etc. in these, since it may require amendments to Client's "Portfolio Investment Strategy".

Risk of Loss

Client understands, accepts and acknowledges that all investments are subject to risk, and changing market conditions, that losses in principal of the accounts are possible, that losses, suspension, or reduction of interest or dividends are possible and that Advisor's services, professional advice, past performance and the investment instruments' past performance does not and shall not guarantee any future results. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to imply or acknowledge that Client's investment objectives and goals shall be met, regardless of the time period the accounts are under management by Advisor.

All investment programs have certain risks that are borne by the investor. Our investment approach constantly keeps the risk of loss in mind. Investors face the following investment risks:

- Interest-rate Risk: Fluctuations in interest rates may cause investment prices to fluctuate. For example, when interest rates rise, yields on existing bonds become less attractive, causing their market values to decline.
- Market Risk: The price of a security, bond, or mutual fund may drop in reaction to tangible and intangible events and conditions. This type of risk is caused by external factors independent of a security's particular underlying circumstances. For example, political, economic and social conditions may trigger market events.
- Inflation Risk: When any type of inflation is present, a dollar today will not buy as much as a dollar next year, because purchasing power is eroding at the rate of inflation.
- Currency Risk: Overseas investments are subject to fluctuations in the value of the dollar against the currency of the investment's originating country. This is also referred to as exchange rate risk.
- Reinvestment Risk: This is the risk that future proceeds from investments may have to be reinvested at a potentially lower rate of return (i.e. interest rate). This primarily relates to fixed income securities.
- Business Risk: These risks are associated with a particular industry or a particular company within an industry. For example, oil-drilling companies depend on finding oil and then refining it, a lengthy process, before they can generate a profit. They carry a higher risk of profitability than an electric company, which generates its income from a steady stream of customers who buy electricity no matter what the economic environment is like.

- Liquidity Risk: Liquidity is the ability to readily convert an investment into cash. Generally, assets are more liquid if many traders are interested in a standardized product. For example, Treasury Bills are highly liquid, while real estate properties are not.
- Financial Risk: Excessive borrowing to finance a business' operations increases the risk of profitability, because the company must meet the terms of its obligations in good times and bad. During periods of financial stress, the inability to meet loan obligations may result in bankruptcy and/or a declining market value.

Review of Accounts

Periodic Reviews

Account reviews are performed quarterly by Arthur N. Budge, Jr., President & CEO. Account reviews are performed more frequently when market conditions dictate.

Review Triggers

Other conditions that may trigger a review are changes in the tax laws, new investment information, and changes in a client's own situation.

Regular Reports

Arthur N. Budge, Jr. considers the client's current security positions and the likelihood that the performance of each security will contribute to the investment objectives of the client.

Clients receive periodic communications on at least an annual basis. Investment Advisory & Management Agreement clients, receive written quarterly updates. The written updates may include a net worth statement, portfolio statement, , and a summary of objectives and progress towards meeting those objectives.

Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Incoming Referrals

BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. has been fortunate to receive many client referrals over the years. The referrals came from current clients, estate planning attorneys, accountants, employees, personal friends of employees and other similar sources. The firm does not compensate referring parties for these referrals.

Referrals Out

BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC. does not accept referral fees or any form of remuneration from other professionals when a prospect or client is referred to them.

Other Compensation

(Explain, if applicable)

Custody

SEC “Custody”

All deposits are intended to be directed to Client's accounts and shall be made directed at the broker/financial institution by Client. and at no time will Advisor maintain custody of any assets (of any kind) on behalf of and for Client. Client agrees that it shall never request Advisor to handle or transport cash or any other type of negotiable instruments or securities on his behalf.

Account Statements

All assets are held at qualified custodians, which mean the custodians provide account statements directly to clients at their address of record at least quarterly.

Performance Reports

Clients are urged to compare the account statements received directly from their custodians to the performance report statements provided by BUDGE FINANCIAL, INC.

Net Worth Statements

Clients are frequently provided net worth statements and net worth graphs that are generated from our client relationship management system. Net worth statements contain approximations of bank account balances provided by the client, as well as the value of land and hard-to-price real estate. The net worth statements are used for long-term financial planning where the exact values of assets are not material to the financial planning tasks.

Investment Discretion
