Educational Background and Business Experience

Form ADV Part 2B, Item 2

EDUCATION AND BUSINESS BACKGROUND: SUSAN F. SHARIN

Susan Sharin, born 1946, graduated Phi Beta Kappa cum laude from William Smith College in 1967. She has more than thirty years of experience as a finance professional. From 1977 through 1989, Sharin was a stockbroker and first vice president with several major investment banking firms. Since 1989, she has been an independent investment advisor.

In the philanthropic arena, Susan Sharin founded a nonprofit organization in 1989, raised and managed the funds, and served as treasurer on the board of directors and executive director of the organization. The corporation, College Express Project Inc., successfully completed its mission (helping twelve disadvantaged children enter and complete college) and terminated in 1995.

EDUCATION AND BUSINESS BACKGROUND: WILLIAM J. BERNSTEIN

William Bernstein, born 1948, graduated maxima cum laude from LaSalle College in 1969. He earned the Ph.D. in organic chemistry from University of California, Berkeley in 1972 and an M.D. from the University of California, San Francisco in 1976. He retired from the active private practice of neurology in 2005.

Bernstein has over twenty-five years of investment experience, has conducted research into portfolio theory, edited an online journal of asset allocation and portfolio theory since 1995, and has written three books on asset allocation and portfolio management: The Intelligent Asset Allocator, published in 2000; The Four Pillars of Investing, published in 2002; and The Investor's Manifesto, published in 2009. In 1998, Bernstein and Susan Sharin formed the investment advisory firm Efficient Frontier Advisors LLC to manage individual and institutional portfolios.

Bernstein currently is on the review board of the research foundation of the CFA Institute and the review panels of Financial Analysts Journal and the Journal of Indexes. He is frequently quoted in national and regional publications, including The Wall Street Journal and The New York Times, and has published articles in Financial Analysts Journal.

Other Business Activities

Form ADV Part 2B, Item 4

Susan Sharin is principal of Susan F. Sharin, L.L.C., a state-registered investment advisor. She maintains her original separate practice but devotes at least half of her time to Efficient Frontier Advisors LLC. No financial arrangements (no referral fees or other monetary considerations) exist between the two practices.

William Bernstein has written several books about finance, economics, and history. In the course of his work as a writer, Bernstein will give occasional talks for no direct compensation (other than lodging and transportation costs if travel is involved). However, these speeches could indirectly benefit Efficient Frontier Advisors LLC in some way, such as by attracting new clients or other consulting business for the advisory firm. Also, these speeches would likely result in increased sales of Bernstein's books.

Additional Compensation

Form ADV Part 2B, Item 5

Susan Sharin is also principal of Susan F. Sharin, L.L.C., a state-registered investment advisory firm. She earns compensation from her original separate practice in addition to her earnings from Efficient Frontier Advisors LLC. Infrequently, Susan F. Sharin, L.L.C. takes on a new client from prospective clients of Efficient Frontier Advisors LLC who do not meet the much higher minimum portfolio size of that firm. No financial arrangements (no referral fees or other monetary considerations) exist between the two practices.
