Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Part II-Page 2 #1D	Townsend & Associates, Inc. (TRS) has been registered as an investment advisor with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) since April 2006. Prior to registration with the SEC, TRS was registered as an investment advisor with the State of Colorado from April 1999 to April 2006. TRS may also offer services under the trade name Townsend Retirement Specialists. FINANCIAL PLANNING SERVICES Financial Plans, Financial Consultations and Asset Allocation Services The investment advisor representatives (IARs) of TRS offer financial planning services based on the client's specific needs and desires for future financial needs. The information gathered is presented in a format that does not make any promises or guarantees, rather using illustrations to show potential growth, all being hypothetical. Information is gathered using programs such as Financial Profiles, Morningstar and others. As part of this service, the IARs may also provide information and advice to clients regarding the insurance industry (i.e. life, health and long term care) for which they are licensed to sell. A fixed fee of up to $1500 is charged for completing a financial profile. At the IARs' discretion financial planning fees are negotiable depending upon the complexity of the financial planning services, the client's financial situation, services requested and the IARs' experience. Fees will be due prior to services being provided. If clients contract for this service, TRS will provide a custom financial plan consisting of a written evaluation and analysis of the information provided by the client, regarding the client's financial goals, objectives and current situation within 90 days of the date of the executed agreement, provided the client furnishes TRS with all required information. TRS will provide clients specific recommendations which may include, but not be limited to the following: tax planning, risk management, investments, insurance, educational funding, retirement planning, employee benefits, estate planning, corporate or business coordination with personal situation, cash flow analysis, financing options and charitable donations. In addition, the IARs offer individual financial consultation services to clients who do not wish to contract with TRS for financial planning services or to clients who have established and maintain an account(s) for which the IARs will not act as registered representatives and will not implement transactions on behalf of the client. TRS will charge a fee of $285 per hour for these services. This fee is non-negotiable. TRS will charge 50% of the fee, based on an estimated number of hours of service required by the client, in advance, with the remainder of the fee due and payable upon completion of the consultation service(s). After reviewing the plan with the client, if the client wishes to have the IARs implement the plan, they will implement the plan in their separate capacities as registered representatives. The IARs will then provide asset allocation services through ongoing monitoring, recommendations and advice to accounts established with an outside custodian. At no time will TRS and/or its IARs act as custodian of any client account, nor will TRS and/or its IARs have direct access to a client's funds and/or securities other than to deduct advisory fees. All asset allocation services will be provided on a non-discretionary basis, no transactions will be

Part II-Page 2 #1D (continued)	implemented by the IARs without first obtaining prior consent from the client. The administration fee for asset allocation services will be up to $299 for a one year period. At the initial meeting which is free, the client may be requested to provide copies of tax returns and other documents that may be used for future recommendations. Clients contracting for asset allocation services will also receive an updated financial profile on an annual basis. After the first year, if the client chooses to renew the services of TRS for an additional year, an annual fee of up to $299 will be charged. Fees charged are not for trade implementation. Both the initial and annual fees are negotiable at the discretion of TRS and are based on the client's financial situation and circumstances. In addition, if the client chooses to implement the recommendations of the IARs, they will earn commissions in their separate capacities as registered representatives or independent insurance agents. Typically, fees for this service are due at the time the agreement is executed. However, TRS may choose to send a billing notice directly to the client. At the discretion of TRS, the annual fee may be negotiable based upon the client's financial situation and circumstances. Termination Services will terminate upon completion and presentation of a written plan or upon completion of the consultations. The agreement for asset allocation services will remain in effect for a period of one year from the date the agreement is executed. Either party may terminate services at any time by submitting written notice to all appropriate parties. Termination will be effective upon receipt of such notice. If services are terminated within five business days, services will be terminated without penalty. After the initial five business days, fees will be refunded on a prorated basis based on the time and effort expended by TRS and/or its IARs prior to receipt of notice of termination. If the client is not satisfied with the written plan presented by TRS and the plan cannot be rewritten to the client's satisfaction, the client may return all written documents prepared and presented to the client by TRS for a full refund of all fees paid in advance. 401(k) Advantage Program TRS offers monitoring services to qualified retirement plan accounts established with outside custodians. These services can be provided to individual non-discretionary client accounts within a plan or to a plan administrator for review of the entire plan. TRS's IARs will review accounts and provide recommendations regarding the implementation and allocation of the investments in the account and any new funds deposited into the account. However, all trade implementation in these accounts will be the responsibility of the custodian. Clients may either establish TRS as an interested party on the account so that a copy of the statement will be delivered directly to TRS's IAR or the client can provide the IAR with a copy of the statement. Fees for this service are charged generally up to $195 at the discretion of the TRS's IAR per year payable in advance. The exact fee for each client will be disclosed in the client agreement. Either party may terminate services at any time by providing written notice to the other and termination will be effective immediately. If services are terminated within five business days of signing the client agreement, services will be terminated without penalty. After the initial five business days, fees will be refunded on a prorated basis based on the time and effort expended by TRS and/or its IARs prior to receipt of notice of termination.

	Part II-Page 2 #1D (continued)	Management fees will be automatically deducted from the account. Clients will be required to provide written authorization to the custodian to have fees automatically deducted and paid to TRS. Each month the client will be sent a management fee notification which may be included in the account statement. This fee notification statement will show the amount of fees for the month, the value of the assets on which the fees were calculated, the manner in which the fees were calculated and any adjustment to the fees and explanations of any adjustments. There are no commissions charged for transactions. However, Fidelity may charge transaction fees to the client. TRS' IARs, at their sole discretion, may cover the transaction fees. Fees and charges will be noted on the client's statements and confirmations. Clients may also incur certain charges imposed by other third parties in connection with investments made through the account. These charges can include, but are not limited to, mutual funds sales loads, 12(b)-1 fees and surrender charges, variable annuity commissions and surrender charges, and IRA and Qualified Retirement Plan fees. Management fees charged in the account are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds and variable annuities which may be recommended to clients. A description of these fees and expenses are available in each fund and annuity's prospectus. Either party may terminate the agreement for management services by providing written or oral notice to the appropriate parties. Termination will be effective when all assets have been transferred and the account is closed. If services are terminated within five business days of signing the client agreement, services will be terminated without penalty. After the initial five business days, prepaid fees will be refunded on a prorated basis and TRS will provide the client with a statement detailing the prorated charges. Financial Advisors Program TRS offers investment management services, which includes giving continuous advice to the client based on the individual needs of the client, through Securities America Advisors, Inc.'s (SAA) Financial Advisors Program (FAP). SAA is an SEC registered investment advisor. SAA's FAP is a wrap-fee program providing investment advisory services and execution of client transactions for which the specified fee (or fees) is not based directly upon transactions in the client's account. Under FAP, TRS' IARs will assist the client in establishing an FAP Account (the Account) with SAA. All brokerage transactions in the Account will be processed by SAI, an affiliated broker/dealer of SAA. The brokerage transactions will then be cleared through National Financial Services, LLC (NFS) pursuant to a clearing arrangement established by SAI with NFS. SAA has also entered into agreements with various insurance companies that allow for the management and valuation of client variable annuity accounts within SAA's FAP. NFS, insurance companies or other custodians will maintain custody of all funds and securities. At no time will SAA, SAI, TRS or its IARs act as custodian of the Account or have direct access to the client's funds and/or securities other than to deduct advisory fees. Annual fees will be based on the following fee schedule:

Part II-Page 4 #8C(9)	TRS is a licensed insurance entity in several states. In addition, its IARs may be independently licensed as insurance agents through various insurance companies and may sell products through these companies as well as through TRS as a licensed insurance entity. In this separate capacity, the IARs can receive commissions for selling insurance products.
Part II-Page 4 #8C(10)	TRS provides qualified plan consultation services to plan participants and/or plan administrators. See Item 1D of this document for further details.
Part II-Page 5 #9B	TRS' IARs are also registered representatives and sell securities to any client for commissions. This could present a potential conflict of interest since they could receive fees and commissions if the client chooses to implement recommendations of the IARs in their capacity as registered representatives. Clients are free to select any broker/dealer they wish to implement recommendations.
Part II-Page 5 #9E	TRS or its IARs may buy or sell securities or have an interest or position in a security for their personal account that they also recommend to clients. TRS is and shall continue to be in compliance with The Insider Trading and Securities Fraud Enforcement Act of 1988. As these situations may represent a potential conflict of interest, it is a policy of TRS that no IAR shall prefer their own interest to that of the advisory client. No person employed by TRS may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction or transactions being implemented for an advisory account. IARs shall not buy or sell securities for their personal account(s) where their decision is derived, in whole or in part, by information obtained as a result of their employment unless the information is also available to the investing public upon reasonable inquiry. TRS maintains a list of all securities holdings for it and all IARs which is reviewed on a regular basis by a principal of the firm. According to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, an investment advisor is considered a fiduciary. As a fiduciary, it is an investment advisor's responsibility to provide fair and full disclosure of all material facts. In addition, an investment advisor has a duty of utmost good faith to act solely in the best interest of each of its clients. TRS and its IARs have a fiduciary duty to all clients. TRS has established a Code of Ethics which all employees must read and then execute an acknowledgement agreeing that they understand and agree to comply with the TRS Code of Ethics. The fiduciary duty of TRS and the IAR to clients is considered the core underlying principle for the TRS Code of Ethics and represents the expected basis for all IAR dealings with clients. TRS has the responsibility to make sure that the interests of clients are placed ahead of it or IARs' own investment interests. All IARs will conduct business in an honest, ethical and fair manner. If current clients or potential clients wish to review TRS' Code of Ethics in its entirety, a copy may be requested from any of TRS' IARs and a copy will be provided within 14 days of request. The minimum investment required for clients contracting for asset allocation services is at the discretion of the investment advisor representative providing the services. The minimum investment amount TRS requires for establishing and maintaining an FAP Account is $50,000. Exceptions may be granted to this minimum upon request. To establish an account at Fidelity, TRS requires a minimum of $50,000 in total assets under management. At the discretion of the IARs, client's family members will be allowed to aggregate or bundle household accounts to meet the account minimum. As a general rule, SAA requires a minimum of $50,000 to establish and maintain Managed Opportunities mutual fund portfolios, $100,000 for separate account portfolios, $250,000 for unified managed account portfolios and $50,000 for advisor directed portfolios. All minimums are negotiable at the discretion of the TRS and SAA.
Part II, Page 5, #11A	All clients who have an investment account (variable annuity or life, or equity product) have the ability to attend a quarterly conference call unless specific needs arise (i.e. changes in client circumstances, unusual market activity or a specific client request). Clients will also receive a confirmation of each purchase and sale transaction that occurs within Managed Opportunities accounts, unless clients provide SAA with written authorization to suppress confirm delivery. If there is no activity in the account, clients will receive statements no less than quarterly from the account custodian or clearing firm.
Part II – Page 6 #12A(1), 12A(2) & 12A(4)	Upon receiving written authorization from the client, TRS' IARs may manage client's assets in FAP, LifeGuide, Variable Annuity Management, Fidelity and Managed Opportunities advisor directed Portfolios on a limited discretionary basis. When they do, discretionary authority is limited in that they will not have the authority to withdraw funds and/or securities from client accounts except when written authorization has been provided to have fees automatically deducted from the client's account and paid directly to TRS and/or its IARs. Discretionary Authority in Variable Annuity Management accounts is limited to exchanges in variable annuity sub-accounts.
Part II-Page 6 #12B	TRS' IARs are registered representatives with SAI, a broker/dealer, member FINRA/SIPC. When placing securities transactions through SAI in their capacities as registered representatives, the IARs earn sales commissions. Clients wishing to implement the advice of TRS' IARs are free to select any broker they wish and are so informed. If the clients wish to have the IARs implement the advice in their capacities as registered representatives, their broker/dealer, SAI, will be used. SAI has a wide range of approved securities products for which it performs due diligence prior to selection. The registered representatives are required to adhere to these products when implementing securities transactions through SAI. Commissions charged for these products may be higher or lower than commissions clients may be able to obtain if these transactions were implemented through another broker/dealer.
Part II-Page 6 #13A	TRS' IARs sell securities products in their separate capacities as registered representatives. Some IARs may also sell insurance products in their separate capacities as independently licensed insurance agents. They earn sales commissions when selling securities and insurance products. Some of the advice offered by the IARs may involve investments in mutual fund products. Load and no-load mutual funds may pay annual distribution charges, sometimes referred to as 12(b)-1 fees. The IARs may receive a portion of these 12(b)-1 fees from some investment companies in their separate capacities as registered representatives. Clients should be aware that these 12(b)-1 fees come from fund assets, and thus, indirectly from client's assets. Receipt of these fees could represent an incentive for registered representatives to recommend funds with 12(b)-1 fees or higher 12(b)-1 fees over funds with no fees or lower fees, therefore creating a potential conflict of interest. TRS from time to time may receive expense reimbursement for travel and/or marketing expenses from distributors of investment and/or insurance products. No solicitor or referral fees are paid by TRS to the attorneys for this service. BLOCK TRADING TRS may occasionally engage in block trading on managed advisory accounts. Since the IARs have discretionary authority over the managed accounts, clients will not be consulted prior to these block trades being transacted. However, when establishing managed advisory accounts, the IARs will discuss with clients restrictions on account holdings and possible allocation changes. Block trades are initiated pursuant to the objective of the account, an analysis of the account performance and current market conditions. When the market dictates, TRS has the ability to move clients to a more conservative allocation on a short term basis. TRS will not allocate an account that exceeds clients' investment objectives and risk tolerance. When performing block trades for managed account clients, all clients will receive equal treatment. In the event a block trade is not filled in its entirety, TRS will allocate the completed portion among the clients on an equal sharing. TRS will keep records of all block trades. In some instances, upon request from the client, the IARs may give limited clarifications based on their understanding of issues presented in the proxy voting materials. In all cases, clients will be solely responsible for implementing final proxy voting decisions. CUSTOMER PRIVACY NOTICE This Privacy Notice is from TRS, a registered investment advisor in the business of providing investment advisory services to customers. TRS is committed to safeguarding the confidential information of its clients. TRS holds all personal information provided by clients in the strictest confidence. TRS IARs may also be registered representatives of SAI, a registered broker/dealer that is not affiliated with TRS. TRS may also have relationships with other non-affiliated registered investment advisors, such as SAA, an affiliate of SAI, insurance companies, trust companies, custodians and other financial institution entities. Except as required or permitted by law, TRS does not share confidential information about clients with non-affiliated third parties. In the unlikely event there were to be a change in this fundamental policy that would permit additional disclosures of client confidential information, TRS will provide written notice to its clients, and clients will be given an opportunity to direct whether such disclosure is permissible. AN IMPORTANT NOTICE CONCERNING CUSTOMER PRIVACY Customer Information Collected. TRS collects and develops personal information about clients, and some of that information is non-public personal information (Customer Information). 	products and services clients obtain from TRS. The categories of Customer Information collected by TRS depend upon the scope of the engagement with the client and are generally described below. As an investment advisor, TRS collects and develops Customer Information about clients in order to provide investment advisory services. Customer Information TRS collects includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information received from clients on financial inventories through consultations. This Customer Information may include personal and household information such as income, spending habits, investment objectives, financial goals, statements of account and other records concerning clients' financial condition and assets, together with information concerning employee benefits and retirement plan interests, wills, trusts, mortgages and tax returns. • Information developed as part of financial plans, analyses or investment advisory services. • Information concerning investment advisory account transactions, such as wrap account transactions. • Information about a client's financial products and services transactions with TRS. Data Security. TRS restricts access to Customer Information to those IARs and employees who need the information to perform their job responsibilities. TRS maintains agreements, as well as physical, electronic and procedural securities measures that comply with federal regulations to safeguard Customer Information about clients. Use and Disclosure of Customer Information to Provide Customer Service for Accounts. To administer, manage and service customer accounts, process transactions and provide related services for client accounts, it is necessary for TRS to provide access to Customer Information within the firm and to non-affiliated companies such as SAI, SAA, other investment advisors, other broker/dealers, trust companies, custodians and insurance companies. TRS may also provide Customer Information outside of the firm as permitted by law, such as to government entities, consumer reporting agencies or other third parties in response to subpoenas. Former Clients. When clients close an account with TRS, TRS will continue to operate in accordance with the principles stated in the Notice. Requirements of Federal Law. In November of 1999, Congress enacted the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA). The GLBA requires certain financial institutions, including broker-dealers and investment advisors, to protect the privacy of Customer Information. To the extent a financial institution discloses Customer Information to non-affiliated third parties, other than as permitted or required by law, customers must be given the opportunity and means to opt out (or prevent) such disclosure. Please note that that TRS does not disclose Customer Information to non-affiliated third parties, except as permitted or required by law (e.g., disclosures to service a client's account or to respond to subpoenas).
