(If yes, describe on Schedule F.)

- 11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

- A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

For clients requesting financial planning services only, no on-going reviews are performed since services terminate upon presentation of the financial plan or consultation. The applicant recommends that clients have their financial situation reviewed at least annually. Clients may be required to execute a new contract and additional fees may be charged for additional reviews.

If clients choose to have on-going services provided through the FAP and/or LifeGuide Programs, the advisor will review the account at least quarterly with the calendar being the triggering factor, unless changes in the market conditions or the clients' financial situation trigger a more frequent review.

The investment advisor representatives will be responsible for reviewing their own client accounts.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Clients receive statements and/or confirmations from the investment company or broker/dealer at which their account is maintained. In addition, the applicant will prepare performance reports periodically for all clients requiring on-going services.

Clients participating in the FAP and/or LifeGuide Programs may receive quarterly, monthly or on-demand reports showing the investment performance of their Accounts from Securities America Advisors, Inc. or the applicant.
