Item 5. Fees and Compensation

Fees are calculated quarterly based account values on the last day of the quarter i.e. December 31, March 31, June 30 and September 30. One third of the quarterly fee will be deducted (debited) directly from the client's brokerage account(s) on the first day of each month. The advisor fee will be on your monthly Fidelity statement as an advisor fee. Bonner & Smith, LLC receives no commissions or payments of any kind from anyone other than our clients. Bonner & Smith, LLC has no conflicts of interest.

Management Fees:

Management Fees:	Annually	Quarterly
First $250000	1.50%	.375%
Next $250000	1.00%	.25%
Next $500000	.75%	.1875%
Next $1500000	.60%	.15%
Next $2500000	.50%	.125%
Above $5000000	.35%	.0875%

Management fees are not negotiable.

Fee example:

Billing period Oct 1 - Dec. 31 Value of assets managed on Dec 31st $365,729.50

$250,000 @ .375 % = $937.50

$115,729.50 @ .25% = 289.32

$937.50 + 289.32 = 1226.82

$1226.82 / 3 = $408.94 billed per month for Jan 1, Feb 1, Mar 1

Assets will be recalculated for quarter ending Mar 31

Mutual funds, including money market mutual funds, charge management fees which are deducted from the mutual funds and are in addition to any fee charged by Bonner & Smith, LLC. Funds may also be subject to redemption fees, short-term trading fees, transaction fees, or a low-balance fee. Fees are detailed in Brokerage Practices on page 11 of this brochure.

403(b) accounts may be subject to an annual fee. Fidelity Investments charges an account closing fee.

HOURLY AND MODULE PLANNING FEE SCHEDULE:

We offer financial planning services for an hourly fee of $150.00 or a flat fee depending on the services provided. Fees and payment options will be agreed upon before services begin and may be negotiable depending on your ability to pay.

Upon reasonable advance notice we reserve the right to increase charges or fees for the services we provide. New accounts may be subject to a one-time account setup fee determined by the complexity or time required.

Item 8. Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Bonner & Smith, LLC uses various methods of analysis for formulating investment advice and model portfolios including

- Charting
- Fundamental analysis
- Technical analysis

The sources of information used for analysis and research are

- Financial publications
- Annual reports
- Prospectuses
- Internet based data sources

Client model portfolios are designed based on long-term investment periods, risk tolerance, and tax considerations. Mutual funds and ETFs are the primary investments used in designing model portfolios. There are occasions where bonds or CDs may be purchased in an account.

Investing in securities, mutual funds, bonds, and equities involves risk of loss and period declines that clients should be prepared to bear. Before investing, consider the funds' investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

* CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Professional,

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and

- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

 Life and Health Insurance Counselor

Issuing organization, Texas Department of Insurance. Exam required through Prometric, exam requirement waived for CLU, ChFC or CFP® designation holders. License fee and continuing education 30 hours every 2 years with 2 hours ethics.

* CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Professional,

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and

- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

 Board Certified in Estate Planning™

Issuing organization is Institute of Business & Finance.

Prerequisites/Experience required is a bachelor's degree, or 1 year of financial services work experience in addition to completing the BCE™ educational program.

The BCE™ is designed to be a self study program consists of six modules.

There are three non-cumulative exams and one case study. A written case study is required.

Designees must abide by a Code of Ethics and complete 30 hours of continuing education every 2 years.
