CFP® – Certified Financial Planner™

CFP® – Certified Financial Planner™

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP marks are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board").

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its high standard of professional education, stringent code of conduct and standards of practice and ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements: Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university, pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination, Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience and agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct.

Individuals who become certified must complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial industry and renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of W. Scott Stauffer, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

A. If W. Scott Stauffer is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if W. Scott Stauffer is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If a relationship between the advisory business and W. Scott Stauffer's other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

W. Scott Stauffer is licensed as an insurance agent/broker and may offer insurance products and receive normal and customary fees as a result of insurance sales. A conflict of interest may arise as these insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation he may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client. In order to minimize this conflict of interest, Mr. Stauffer will place client interests ahead of his own and adhere to our firm's Code of Ethics as well as clearly explaining this conflict when recommending any such products to clients. Clients are not obligated to purchase these products.

2. If W. Scott Stauffer receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service ("trail") fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation W. Scott Stauffer receives. We must explain that this practice gives W. Scott Stauffer an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

W. Scott Stauffer is a registered representative of Comprehensive Asset Management and Servicing, Inc. ("CAMAS"), member FINRA/SIPC. He may offer securities and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of securities transactions. A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation he may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client. In order to minimize this conflict of interest, Mr. Stauffer will place client interests ahead of his own and adhere to our firm's Code of Ethics as well as clearly explaining this conflict when recommending any such products to clients. Clients are not obligated to purchase these products.

- B. If W. Scott Stauffer is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of W. Scott Stauffer's income or involve a substantial amount of W. Scott Stauffer's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of W. Scott Stauffer's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to W. Scott Stauffer for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include W. Scott Stauffer's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 6: Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise W. Scott Stauffer, including how we monitor the advice W. Scott Stauffer provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising W. Scott Stauffer's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

W. Scott Stauffer is a Managing Partner of Wealth Design, LLC and as such has no internal supervision placed over him. He is however bound by our firm's Code of Ethics. Please contact Thu Ka, Chief Compliance Officer, if you have any questions about W. Scott Stauffer's brochure supplement at 408-558-1660.
